

WILLS

I, Lindell Alderman, leave Vanessa McLaughlin, my collection of Jim Morrison's Nursery Rhymes and Polka hits; Cameron, two pairs of Chippewa boots, one can of Skoal, one can of Bondo, and an English-to-Redneck phrase book; Sarah Burt, a lifetime supply of Valium; Amy, a small island with no moral codes; Ben Ziegler, one day on which to be superior to me in every way; Lisa, the word "womyn" and the ability to use it.

I, Scottie Arbaugh, leave Morgan, a bottle of Drano; Sam Taylor, my two-wheeled three-wheeler; Mr. Herold, my 1978 blue Ford pick-up; and to the cafeteria cooks, my ostrich farm.

I, Chuck Arbogast, leave Tim C., more fun times in basketball; John, more fun times riding around with . . . you know!; Mark, more exciting nights riding around town; Lori, more long bus rides; Philissa, a tutor in math and my best wishes with that special someone; Randall and Dawn, more fun times in Spanish; David S., a game of pool and thanks for everything; Kristi, total support in everything and sorry for my mistake in eighth grade; Dawnn and Rachel, a seat in the cafeteria and all my problems; Matt, my complete and most honorable friendship and thanks for everything!; to everyone, GOOD LUCK!!

I, Lewis Ray Arbogast, leave "Aunt Teresa," a big thanks for pushing me through school; Stacy Lambert, Bob; Tim Nicely, some more good times; Mrs. VanReenen, thanks for the helping hand; and everything else I'm taking with me!!

I, Roy Lee Arbogast, leave Mrs. Seielstad, my hunting dogs for when she wants to go bear hunting; Mr. Herold, all my deer hides for his taxidermy shop; to the cooks, bigger plates for that delicious food.

I, Amanda Barb, leave Tammy, the ability to do one push-up; Shelly, Garth; Dana, a front pew; Darlene, a pet hair remover; Amy, a laboratory; Lisa, a seat next to Dana; Pam, a few more boyfriends; Rev. Perry, more church youth like moi; Mr. Beverage, no more students as rotten as me; my goddaughter, all my love; to Liddy and Lindsay, the ability to stay out of trouble; Cheryl, I'll clean your car; Mom and Dad, more children like me; Randall, a real attitude; Jennifer and Robbie, a long and prosperous life together; P.C.H.S. Nada.

I, Tammy Barb, leave Amanda, a harder drill sergeant than mine; Wayne, the restraint not to cheat on me next year; Liddy, the permission to spy on Wayne; the Class of '92," all the happiness in the world; Shelly, a secretarial job for Garth.

I, Cameron Barkley, leave Jennifer Moore, my broken heart; Charlie Cole, my speed in track and a good track; Charles May, HELP and a dictionary; Clinton Mick, a family tree and a new set of lips; Lewis Mullenax, $20,000 in his G-String for the future strip joint; Jamie Burke, my calculator; Lisa Sharp, my organization and ability to be on time; Lindell Alderman, "What can I say?"; Ben Ziegler, some good skis and my artistic ability; Amanda Barb, somebody dumb enough to shoot back; all the teachers I've had, the BEST four years of my life.

I, Shelly Barrett, leave Pam, Travis Tritt; Mandy, a good husband; Tammy and Wayne, many happy years together; Stephanie, a really nice guy; Mom and Dad, all my love; Paul, a good job; Mrs. Howell, another aide like me; Mrs. Stewart, two students like me and Tammy; Amy, the guy of her dreams; Lisa, a life with Jamie; Susan, a happy life with Dave; Mrs. Waugh, another Sunday School student like me; Carol, a good career and a nice guy; Cindy, a world-famous book.

I, Christine Baxter, leave Mike T., a trip to paradise; Stacey O., a happy Army life and 20 bucks; Debbie, a friend that will listen; Pickle and Damian, another game of cards in Room #244; Brian B., a dollar for gas; Brian K., a waterbed and a future sister-in-law; Becky,

"Something Strange"; Lewis, your ultimate dream in the golden arches; to my fiancée, Michael, I leave you my love and happiness for a lifetime. "I will love you always." And to all I forgot, I will you the best of luck in whatever you may do.

I, Johnnie Beverage, leave John Gibson, a driver's license; Bobby T., another year of welding; Terry Brickles, a legal deer; John Shinaberry, my cousin; D.R.G., somemore good times and another good friend like me; Charlie Wolfe, another lunch shift with Mr. Wade; Janelle F., I leave you with a lot of good times and more to come in the future; Glenda, I leave you someone like me on the weekends to get you something; Chris G., I leave you three more years of school and my brains to finish them; Sam Kincaid, I leave you something you never had; Keith H., I leave you a new truck.

I, Rachel Broyles, leave Steph, the ability to keep on laughing; Angelena, combos and tropical W.C.'s; Dott, gas money; Jess, Rusty; Joe, someone besides me to pick on; Bo, a fake I.D., a pool room, and the Swedish bikini team; Ash, a brown bag, box, a cordless phone, and John; Aud, a pen; Dana, an apple; Mrs. B., a maid, and a special thanks for everything; my family, a very special thanks for getting me this far; to the 1992 graduates, all the memories and the best of luck in the years to come.

I, Darlene Burgess, leave Lisa H., a new chemistry partner; Mandy B., stay out of the line of fire!; Marty, a polite keychain; Toni, a real man; P.J., Marty's pants; Randall, my English knowledge; Anatomy class, the fetal pigs; Tiffany, supply of pencils for your hair; Rachel I., college chemistry and my brother; Mr. Lambert, someone like me; Mr. Wade, the Batman movie; Odie, a pack of AA batteries; Frankie, growth tonic and my ability to stay in trouble without getting caught; to everyone else, GOOD LUCK!!

WILLS

I, Amy Burks, leave Lindell, soap-on-a-rope; Erika, a plane with unlimited fuel; Mindy, our murder game; Louis, a Chinese lovegirl; Cameron, a jail sentence for going "over his limit"; Stephen Hawking, thank-you for calling Carl Sagan an idiot; and to Andy, I leave Brian to drive you nuts.

I, Rebecca Campbell, leave to Molly, a dream date with Mr. January and fun times at U.S.C.; Philissa, Dawnn, and Rachel, silicon implants; Holly, another trip to the beach; Martha, a happy marriage and lots of kids; Kim Hall, smaller ditches; Mr. Wade, the ability to keep rude comments to himself; Mr. Hall, another aide that dresses like me and someone to bring him lunch; Dr. Leary, another dumb blonde to argue with; Brad and Doug, another party like B.J.'s; Jake, a little red ribbon for my present; Martin, my friendship forever, and if you're lucky, my car.

I, Bo Casteel, leave to Joe Howard, the Swedish Bikini Team; Kristi Miller, a Virginian God and a blue Beretta; John Combs, a life with T.C.; Donald Conley, a rubber band; David Dilley, my driving skills and a new truck; Lori Martin, a new laugh; Marion McKean, a lot of celibacy; Mr. Hall, a slower car; Brad Dunz, a real I.D.; Laura Hefner, a picture; Heather Hanshaw, Stillwell; Angelena Wilfong-Ryder, Homecoming '90; Mrs. Stewart, my interruption of classes; David Smith, your brother; Dawn Rodriguez, my friendship forever; Rachel Broyles, a pool room; Mr. Wade, an aide like me; to everyone, my friendship forever, Bye!

I, Ann Chestnut, leave to my Dad and Mom, thanks for everything and the ability to keep Amanda straight; Missy Grimes, a bag of fertilizer; Martha Ryder, both of our worries; Missy Jordan, a king-size waterbed and a promise well kept; to Stacey, Cheryl, Debbie, and Dottie, the ability to be your best; Molly, a red hot car; Danie, your coat that I've worn for four years; Heather, the satisfaction to know you will always be older; to P.C.H.S., more memories and dreams; to Paul, all my love, memories, and happiness of a lifetime.

I, David Cochran, leave Brad Dunz, real snowboarding lessons; Hardrock, a lesson on how to shoot a gun; Brian Robinson, my car; Bo, a real job at FOODLAND; Withers, a good life with Tina; Doug Davis, a real snowboard; Ry, a haircut; Daniel Solliaday, a basketball.

I, Charlie Cole, leave Sugar Bear and Honey Comb, 15 more minutes of curfew; Cameron, a little Lightning for his Thunderfoot; Tim, some money and a new truck with a half-decent stereo system; Charlie, a pair of sunglasses.

I, Randall Coleman, leave Chuck, a big BBQ; Smith, the courage to live with me through college; Damian and David, all of the cars they can total and many weekends at Brill's; Matthew, all the cows and land he can handle; Lori, love and happiness; Tim, a chauffeur; Mrs. McGee, a student who will work to his or her potential; John, a place to "be" and all the Wild Turkey he can chase; Rachel, best of luck; Becky, a beach-front condo; Tina, Hope, Amy, many more educated talks; Amanda, everything she wants in life.

I, John Combs, leave Ruby and Becki and all those married women all my love and best wishes; Bland, a date with Mrs. Keller; Monica, a picture of my truck seat; David, a Chevrolet; Matt, a new Chevy and a party; Ruthana, a real boyfriend; to Christie Brinkley, I leave MYSELF!; Mr. Tupper, I leave Mrs. McGee; Brad, a snowboard; Mr. Sheets, my Chippewas that put all those black marks on HIS FLOOR; Audrey, my truck; Missy, a man; Wade, hair; P.C.H.S., more students like me and Matt; Doug, 30 minutes with Philissa; Mrs. McGee, my life story with pictures; Michelle, a trip to Stillwell.

I, Donald Cook, leave Shawn Bosley, a trip to T.V. and a better football team; Richard McCarty, a box of snuff and a place to drive without running the law; Bo Casteel, a better job; Stacy Lambert, single women; Mike Taylor, to be able to fight without me breaking it up; Chris Matheny, a girlfriend; Matt Buzzard, another truck to throw up in; Steve Taylor, a quarterback position and some muscle; Christie Rose, my love and all the happiness in the world; you deserve it.

I, Lori Cook, leave Dr. Leary, the Library of Congress and another "Mary" student; Mrs. Beverage, more authority and respect; Mr. Rexrode, a decoder to finally decipher my handwriting; my best friend Amy, a lifetime supply of stud-muffins or happiness -- if she's lucky, maybe both; Lisa S., time to get everything done in; Audrey, another friend like me; Susan M., a million-dollar lottery; to my family, thanks for everyting over the years; and to everyone else I have forgotten to mention, the pleasure of knowing me.

I, Tim Coughlin, leave Michelle B., Chemistry homework; Mark K., an easier English class; Tim N., an "A" in conduct in Seielstad's class; Mike L. and Mike T., lock picks; Daniel, a smooch with the pooch; Randall, gas money; David D., Vivarin; Matt W., a new rock; Mr. Hall, trombone lessons; Mrs. Stewart, me; Chris M., Lori; Amy W., your own doctor; Hope, the graveyard; Jamie, rapping lessons; Chuck A., your own car; to everyone else, good luck and my friendship; to the most important person in my life and the girl of my dreams, Lori, the ONLY key to my heart.

I, Chris Coy, leave Mr. B., another winning team; Zig, all his ground clips; Mrs. Sharpes, someone to drive her crazy for another four years in a row; Mr. T., another me; Jerry, the 66 he wants; David R., head leader of the Gravers; Jason Moore, more hair; Mr. Wade, another urinal breaker; Angelena Ryder, a big brick house with you-know-who in it. I hope you have a good life. And to everyone else, PARTY ON!!!

WILLS

I, Dana Cutlip, leave Amy, friendship forever and camping trips; Amanda, your own congregation; Heather, my taxi company; Matt, very best of everything; Ann and Missy, happiness and toleration; Audrey and Fert, my meanness; Mike, padded walls; Hope, friendship always and a "STRANGE" thing; Aracoma, parking spaces and bus rides; Leslie, my friendship and a magnetic mirror; Cheryl, bathroom breaks and my friendship always; Christine, an indoor tree; Lori and Tim, each other; David, a pack of gum; Kristi, "OUR" locker; Dawnn, 4-H camp and friendship always; Rachel, 4-H camp and a wastebasket; Debbie, heart pills; Molly, bandaids; Mrs. White, a colorful name; Reta, someone else to push around; Mrs. Stewart, the wonder ostrich; Kristy, the ability to ignore and boxing gloves; Tina and Kim, "rumors" and everything you want; Robin, just grin and bear it.

I, Doug Davis, leave Brad Dunz, a pair of skis; David Dilley, a new truck; Coach Sheets, a pair of Chippewas and a new gym floor; Ms. Rose, a student just like me; Philissa, a hair coloring kit; John Combs, a really good lawyer; Rick Moore, a pair of scissors; Angelena Wilfong-Ryder, her own play toy; Becky Campbell, a new life; Mr. Hall, a basketball; Class of "92," a party; last but not least, I give all of my hugs, kisses, and love to Tawnya.

I, Lynn Dean, leave Mrs. Beverage, a better group of students in the upcoming years; Mrs. Stewart, someone to pester her now that I am leaving; Mr. Ziegler, a box of pencils so he will leave Mrs. Beverage alone; Carrie and Mandi, my great looks because they both need them; Lisa, long wonderful years of happiness with Doug; Dawnn and Rachel, good luck in the future and don't ever change; last but not least, to my best friend Cindy, I leave my ability to flirt.

I, David Dilley, leave Matt, a new Ford; John, lots of women; Damian, a woman like Jessica;

David, a shorter girlfriend; Kristy, lots of hard times; Randall, many more nights in Laurel Run; Dawnn, all of Matt's love; Amandy, many more nights with Randall; Mom and Dad, another son like me; Mike, my cousin; Coach Sheets, a new gym floor and a pair of Chippewas; Marcy, a boyfriend; Kristi Matheny, all our love and happiness together; to the Senior Class, one more big party together.

I, Brad Dunz, leave John (my dad), all the married women; Withers, a new haircut and a Chevy truck; Dave Cochran, a slow car, fast women, and driving lessons; Ry, a pair of Chippewas; Dawnn McLaughlin, a single life until I get back from the Army; Marion (sis), someone who deserves someone as special as you; Doug, more women like Janet; Daniel, a new jeep; Billy Roy, a new motorbike; Laura Hefner, all my love and the best luck in life; you're very special to me, and you deserve the best.

I, Damian Elliott, leave the Class of "92," success; David Dilley, the tales of my vehicles and all the big bucks; Matt Workman, a cattle farm; Randall Coleman, a house in Lobelia; David Smith, a date with Mrs. W.; Mike Thomas, the police and a straight jacket; Jessica, the best of luck.

I, Molly Fuller, leave Debbie, my friendship until we're little 'ole ladies and many more fun nights, GOOD LUCK!!; Missy, music teacher wallpaper; Audrey, a country Chippendale; Erika, friendship and a bridge to get home quicker; Becky, nights with Jeff and Shawn and a great time at U.S.C.; Kristi, puppy paw prints; Amy, Viviran; Dana, my hospital bills for bruises; Dottie, a faithful man; Chris B., my wardrobe; Stacey O., a lifetime of bushes; Kelly W., Brian B., and Shawn C., a computer wiz like myself, HA! Finally, to the best Mom in the world, thanks and love forever. I love you, Mom!

I, Susan Gainer, leave Heather, my friendship forever, a good man and many more birthdays; Mike B., a new heart; Dana, a lot of laughs; Rachel I., my sincere appreciation; Stacey O., a fuzzy boosh!!; Aracoma, more times like Dec. 11, with the gang; Dawn R., a life with the one she really wants; David Smith, another fetal pig; Jamie Burke, more smarts and a bag of pigskins; Kristi Miller, another fishing trip; the Class of "92," a wild party; David Irvine, my love which has been and always will be.

I, Debbie Galford, leave Molly, my friendship forever and more great times out on the town; Missy, a great-looking guy and more good times together; Audrey, a new truck; Stacey, a new bush; Leslie, a new heater in the car; Cheryl, a guy out of the Chippendale Calendar; Chris, a great life with Mike and my gold ring; to the best parents in the world, I leave my love and happiness; Mike, the good times together and my sweat shirts; Mr. Rexrode, a case of aspirin; Clark, the best times of my life and more to come; Dana, a punching bag; Amy, the water tower.

I, John Gibson, leave Johnnie Beverage, a new Pontiac Bonneville and a full tank of gas in his Bronco; Keith Hannah, a new Chevy pickup loaded with sheep and a better relationship with Lori Baxter; Susan McKenney, a pair of boxing gloves for the bus ride across the mountain; Bobby Tinchler, the biggest buck in the world; John Shinaberry and Lewis Arbogast, a quiet night at Mountain View; Sam Kincaid, a girlfriend; Mike Blake, the biggest bear in the world; Angelena Wilfong-Ryder, a new house for her and her husband; Joe Howard, more Bondo for his sheep.

I, Stephanie Gibson, leave Dottie, some twizzlers and the ability to read shorthand; Audrey, a pen and some paper for English class; Tammy, a Xerox machine and many happy years with Wayne; Mandy B., the best of luck in the Army; Ashley J., a pair of bleached jeans; Rachel B., driver's license, M & M's and the best of luck in the future; Susan M., many more happy years with Dave; and to the Class of '92, the best of luck in the future.

WILLS

I, Cheryl Green, leave my parents, my appreciation of their support through my high school years; my brother, Allen, nine lives for his car; Leslie Sheets, my Myrtle Beach post cards and the gorgeous guys in them; Stacey Oliver, a bill for every "dollar" she owes me; Mrs. Leary, another good art student like me; Missy Jordan, the hopes that she will "get lucky"; and last but not least, I leave all my other friends, my love and wishes for luck in the future.

I, Missy Grimes, leave Audrey, a hot-rodding truck, a life full of joy and "privacy"; Debbie, a new identity so Donnie can't find you and a super life with Clark; Ann, a happy married life with Paul; Molly, a little red convertible that goes very fast; John C., a life full of people with attitude problems; Susan M., a life full of happiness and excitement; Leslie, a back seat heater for your car; to the cheerleaders, a cushion for all your falls and great success; to everyone else, a life full of adventure and excitement.

I, Trampas Hammons, leave Morgan, six kids and a fat wife; Rick Moore, some Tonka toys to play with till you grow up; Doug Davis, a bottle of blue ointment; Matt Workman, the ability to weld; Kim Ryder, a lot of patience; Mrs. Beverage, my little brother in a year or two; Lewis Arbogast, an orange to fight for; Mr. Thompson, Mikey Taylor.

I, Heather Ann Hanshew, leave Susan, a bottle of George Straight and a happy life with David; Dawn, your true fantasy; Amy, my one-eyed willy teddybear; Aracoma, another trip to Durbin; Lori, a good life with Tim and somemore gossiping sessions; Jamie B., a chicken dinner with extra cole slaw; Brad D., another cold night at Stillwell; John C., a bottle of Polo to gargle; Ann, lots of money and a big house; Kristi M., her own W. N. B. A.; Mark

Kane and Robin B., a great senior year; Dana, more gas money; Missy and Audrey, a good, hard-working man.

I, Erika D. Heiremann, leave Dad, holeless walls in future "computer-rooms"; Mom, comfort when I leave; "Einstein," my friendship forever and FAME; Cassie, liberation and love; Becky, nonstop partying; Molly, happiness always; Katy, my wardrobe; Sarah, full scholarship to Swarthmore and more chances to stay up until dawn together; David, new truck and Viviran; Steven, my ashes; Heather, memories from our closer times and a steady boyfriend; Marion, my memory, love; my lunch table companions, bigger, better lunches; Katie, self-confidence; Daniel, even bigger heart and the ability to achieve all your dreams; Kurt, my personality, popularity, and desire for success; Dottie, a pooperscooper; the future seniors, a chance to be as good as us.

I, Cindy Horner, leave Lewis, freedom from worries and greedy friends; Carol, my rockcard collection; Vanessa, my 60's music; Susan, a relationship that really means something; all my other friends, my everlasting friendship and happiness.

I, Joe Howard, leave Keith, the Dallas Cowgirls; Bo, a muzzie; Dawnn M., a blonde joke book; Angelena, purple underwear; Zig, rubber chicken factory; Brush, a Ford; Conley, Joe Cat; Rodriguez, an electrician handbook; Brad, common sense; Rachel B., pop machine; Missy J., psychiatrist; Miller, first name; Kid, Isuzu truck; Lambert, old mill; Audrey, my English book; Philissa, a new twist; Darlene, my wonderful mind; Holly, pen; Tina, bag of Dum Dums; Leslie, my accounting skills; Mrs. Stewart, a case of white-out; Class of '92," lots of great memories.

I, Rachel Irvine, leave Chuck, an unlimited supply of gum and a great girl; Dawnn, my friendship forever and a cure for the flu; Kim, Amy, and Chris, another summer at the restaurant and safe driving methods; Susan and Damian, I leave the true love of your life; Matt, another morning building fence and my best friend; Mrs. Stewart, one of my wild outfits; the cheerleaders, faces like Karen and the stage; Missy, a new laugh; Mom, Dad, and Fanie, man; and Tim, nerve pills to put up with me and my love forever.

I, Pamela Jackson, leave Stephanie, my singing ability; Amanda, still wanting to be like Mike; Susan, a good life with Dave; Mrs. Beverage, an orange factory; Tammy, my brain; Shelly, a wrong man and a good job; Mr. Hall, a real voice; Philip, Susan, and little Philip, a happy life together and the best of health; Dairy Queen, keep the good times rolling; Class of '92," best of luck now and always; everyone else, the best of times with that special someone; Reta, happily married to Ken someday; Cindy, an all-star basketball player; Mom and Dad, all my love and thanks for everything.

I, Missy Jordan, leave Mom and Dad, thanks and something to do once I'm gone, I love you; Ann, a great life with Paul, kids, and happiness; Leslie, Dana, and Missy G., more great times and lasting friendships; Cheryl, "better cover"; Stacey, shorter legs; Thomas, my honesty, all the attention you want, and my friendship; Dawnn, wonderwears; Rachel, a third of mine; Reta, two more like me; Joe and Keith, brains; basketball team, success; Kenny and Unc, keep them on their toes; Jamie, my eternal friendship, decision-making skills, and a life filled with happiness; all my other friends and the Class of '92," memories and your dreams.

I, Mark King, leave Matt Buzzard, the wizardry of cheap shots without getting a flag called on him; Charles Arbogast, all the women he can imagine; Amy Smith, all my love; Tim C., a good grade in Chemistry; Tim N., best of luck in whatever you do; Kristi Miller, a job at FOODLAND; David Dilley, all the money he can make at Brill's

WILLS

Exxon; Richard Mc., a job that lets him do nothing but hunt and fish.

I, Hope Kinnison, leave Dana, someone to bug her as much as she has me; David, Randall, and Amy, some more of our interesting conversations in Psych; Tina, friendship and love always; Tim and Lori, best wishes for a happy future; Mrs. Burns, another student like me that does so well in Science Seminar; Stacey, a trip outside in band; my brother, "DIRT," a new haircut; the rest of the Class of '92, luck and all your dreams; my boyfriend Bill, my love, trust, and companionship forever.

I, Stacy Lambert, leave Mike T. and Lauri H., the best of luck in the future; Shawn B. and Donald C., another G. B.; Philissa S., the best of luck with Mathew; Jake, more good times like we have had in the past; John C., a couple more girlfriends; Catrina, the best of luck in the future; Mrs. Keller, more students exactly like me; Angela and Kristie, another test tube baby.

I, Mike Layne, leave Mike Thomas, a pair of black gloves and a Swiss bank account to split with me; Tim Coughlin, my Cass name tag and several hundred cans of gray paint; Martin McGreal, a blue light special on Marlboros and my natural talent for skiing; Dan Solliday, a real hat!; to Sarah Burt-Kinderman, I leave two things: the key to my heart -- when I lock it to the world, you'll always be able to open it -- and every star up in the sky; they were made for me and you! (That was the key to my heart, not my can.)

I, Chawn Loudermilk, leave Carrie McKenney, my heart along with all my love; to my sister, Amy, my locker; to my brother, Travis, my math abilities; Sam Taylor, more hammers for the carpentry class; Zig, more ground clips; Joe, an Iroc-Z car; Eddie B., all the Mountain Dew he can drink; Rhonda Dean, a man that she will be happy with; to all my other friends, my friendship and whatever they want; and last but not least, to my bus driver "Daniel Sharp," I leave some peace and quiet.

I, Audrey Lovelace, leave Combs all the parties and wild women in Marlinton; Bland, more kids like me and Combs; Missy, my friendship; Pepsi, a keg for graduation, and a HUNK!!!; Lori, my playgirl magazines; Susan, happiness with Dave; Dana, a punching bag; Philissa, more orange juice mix; Morgan, a job in the board office; Debbie, a life without Donnie; Molly and Ann, friendship and happiness; Dawn and Felinda, more classes with Papa Bland; Kane, a game of Truth or Dare; and last but not least, my Mom and Dad, ALL MY LOVE!

I, Tina Madison, leave Hope, friendship and support; Angie, more 2 a. m. wake-up calls; Amy and Dana, a look at Mr. D.; Dan, kindergarten scissors; David S., pool table; Jamie B., more arrows to make your day; Kristi, patience; Lori, happiness with the husband; Toni, the life of a Senior; Tim, happiness with the wife; Mr. Hall, someone else's day to ruin; and last but not least, Brian, more exciting Nintendo games, a real driver's license, all my love and friendship.

I, Dottie Malcom, leave Rachel Broyles, Fred Flintstone, a driver's license and a maid; Stephanie Gibson, giggles and the ability to read my shorthand; Ashley Jolly, a carefree life with John; Lori Martin, a happy married life with Tim; Ann Chestnut, a loving marriage, not having to worry about all the problems from you-know-who; Angelena Ryder, more fun times and lots of laughs when you and Thane grow old; Molly Fuller, S. C. beach boys; Martin, the ability to stay out of trouble; Mrs. Rhea, another aide like me; Mrs. Stewart, more blonde jokes; Mrs. Beverage, another lunch crew; C. J. Tinney, a happy life with Shawn; Rick and Liz, many THANKS, I love you guys!; Mom, special thanks for all the love and support, I LOVE YOU!!; Class of '92, the best of luck, YOU DESERVE IT!!!

I, Lori Martin, leave Hope, a pity party; Chuck, a ride home; Amy, a roommate; Christopher, memories of me; Jamie, sleep on the activity bus; Marion, a bigger window; Heather, a steady boyfriend; Kristi, your own business; Jennifer, Saturday Night Live; Stacey (Bush), more good times in Chemistry; Jessica, baritone lessons; Robin, my shoulder; Monica, the past; Dawnn, a three-wheeler; Mr. Hall, another eight years; Randall, my smile; Bo, a laugh like mine; Dana, webby; Tina, happiness; Dottie, any guy named Brad; Daniel, a brownie; David S. and Johnny, our good times; Tim, my friendship, my love, and most of all, my life.

I, Charles May, leave Daniel Solliday, a roll of duck tape -- those memories should stick in his head; Cameron Barkley, my guns since he is a hunter that ranks up there with Davey Crocket; Cole, an encyclopedia with basketball in it so he can understand the goal of the game is to get the ball in the hoop; Chris Sheets, a roll of duck tape and fishing line. I hope he doesn't get too tired in his life; Chris Sheets, again, a bunch of bananas, I hope this doesn't slip his mind. To Jo, the one person that made last year special to me, I leave my cards and my jacket. Now that I can finally speed, leave me alone.

I, Susan McKenney, leave Audrey, M.M.; Missy, college with Audrey, all the guys at Fairmont, and friends forever; John, a Ford; Philissa, "Chicken"; David, the ability to stay awake and a new truck; Gilligan, Lori; Mr. Burns, another kid like Tony; Hee Haw, a can of Bondo; Toots, Josh; Josh, Toots; Dawn, a blonde joke book; J.M.K., another trip like Morgantown; Morgan, a happy life with Kim; my family, all my love; Matt Workman, my friendship forever, all the parties you can handle and Ms. Right; Dave, all my love, I LOVE YOU!!!

I, Dawnn McLaughlin, leave

WILLS

Rachel I., lifetime of happiness with Tim and my friendship forever; Lori M., more wheeling in the mountains; Donald C., a dream come true; Dana C., another week at Thornwood; Jessica M., a date and my ability to slam dunk; Jennifer Y., my ability to drive; Kristi M., good luck playing with the Trotters; Joe H., a blonde that acts just like me; seventh period electricity, two more intelligent Dawn(n)'s to learn from; Matt, many more years together and a lot of fun; Brad D., realizing it's not going to waste; Mom and Dad, the strength to go on, knowing that I'm not the baby anymore and thanks for everything.

I, Richard McMillion, leave David D., a tank; Dawnn M., a good future with Matt; Kristi M., the ability to make up her mind; Damian, a girlfriend like the past; Matt W., a green tractor; Joe L., money for singing lessons; Bo C., all my friendship; Richard McCarty, two front teeth; Brad D., cool winter snowboarding; Chuck A., a girl to share his life with; Lori M., a grand life with Tim; Dawn R., all my love and tenderness and to share the rest of my life with her.

I, Clinton Mick, leave Doc Leary, well, "who cares"; Dana Cutlip, a seeing eye ostrich; Mrs. Beverage, an extended snow day; Mrs. Rhea, "directions"; all other things that I have that anyone wants, well, YOU CAN'T HAVE THEM!!! Except for one more thing, Mrs. Beverage, just remember that no monkey can do the excellent job that you are doing.

I, Kristi Miller, leave Jen Young, the Boston Garden; Jennifer, dynamite; Dana, a long necked cat X-Mas ornament; Missy, luck with Jamie; Tina, any patience left over from instrumental; Dawnn, the Harlem Globe Trotters and AIR FRESHNER!; Monica, "Beach Boys Tape"; John C., Senior Citizen Van; Stacey, fuzzy boosh; Smitty, lots of underwrap and tape; Chuckles, self-confidence; Heather H., her very own calendar; Philissa, AIR

FRESHNER!; Kristi D., 8 X 10 of Tim and Terri; to my best friend, Mom, all my love and dirty clothes for the next four years; Lori, ear plugs; Hollie, luck with Joey; Travis, all my love and thousands of hugs and kisses.

I, Rick Moore, leave Morgan, my friendship forever; Matt Workman, a torch; Billy Roy, a nice car and his license; Tramp, an older woman; Doug, a bag of seven dust; Mrs. B., my thanks for your help; Lewis, an apple.

I, Lewis Mullenax (Big Louie, Joe, George), leave Dad and Mom, sanity after living with me for 18 years; Melinda, a beautiful life with James and Charlie; Teresa, an exercise bike and S.O.S.; Mrs. "B," the learning center and a worry-free life; Doc Leary, a new finger; Mrs. Rhea, another wild homeroom; Amy, the power to change the world; Cameron, love, peace, and happiness with J.M.; Becky, a tall stud with black hair and a moustache; Aracoma, a Spanish-English Dictionary; Lisa, Jamie and success in life; Christine, another wonderful lab partner; and Clinton, a new job and car.

I, Tim Nicely, leave Matt W., Big John, and David D., another night at Wesley Chapel; Lewis A., another summer in the Subaru; Randall, a three stroker; Missy, a good life with Jamie; B.B., a jonsered; Dawnn, a big party; Thomas, a real job at Snowshoe; Mike, another Shafers; Stacy, good luck with Renee, you'll need it; Steve Irvine, a good memory; David S., a hunting trip; Angela, a lot more parties; Tim C., a faster clock; Kristi M., good luck with Dave; Jake, a good ring; Terri, everything else I have except my dogs.

I, Stacey Miranda Oliver, leave Cheryl, another walk through the woods, late night T.V. "specials," and my friendship always; Leslie, driving lessons, the ability to someday conquer CUPP RUN, and my friendship forever; Michelle, my "bazooka," more wild rides through the big town; Lori M., "BUSH," more great times like Mrs. Brunny's class, and happiness with Tim; Brian H., a new haircut; my Mom and Dad, thank you for everything; Richard, my everlasting love and a very promising life together, I LOVE YOU!!; Missy, Chris, Kristi M., and Amy B., friendship and success in everything you do; everyone to whom I "owe" a dollar or more, SORRY I'M BROKE!

I, Melanie Riffe, leave Heather, a portapotty of her very own, a lifetime of hairspray, and a "joe" to do with as she pleases; Chris Matheny, a personal maid of his very own and someone specific; Aracoma, better taste; Angelena, "Happiness" with Thane, Mrs. Rhea, another homeroom just like ours; Mrs. Stewart, a lifetime of Chris Mathenys; Lauri Hess, someone to fight with besides Mike; Stacey, courage, a life of her own, and a brain; Kristi Miller, a bigger jumping toy; Dana, new person to pick on every day for the rest of her life; Danny, all of my love, a lifetime of happiness, and a million dollars.

I, Carol Roberts, leave Lewis, my mischief and recklessness; Rosalie and Mandy, my heavy metal influence; Cindy, my dragons and rock albums; Vanessa, to be possessed by Jim Morrison or Janis Joplin; Shelly, the power to get Flying Brian.

I, Dawn Rodriguez, leave Heather H., J.G. and another night at Stillwell; Bo, a lifetime full of friends like me; Ara, another all-night talk; Susan, happiness; Electricity class, to have to put up with someone like me forever!; Joe, the movie, Pete's Dragon; Dawnn, a shotgun; Richard McMillion, a lifetime full of happiness and my love forever; Laura and Becki, to my two favorite cousins, good luck in high school and never change for anything or anybody.

I, Billy Roy, leave all the nice-looking girls to all the boys that think or wish they were studs; Joe Loudermilk, a very good-looking woman that has him wrapped around her little finger; Doug Davis, a long line of girls to pick from; Brad

WILLS

Dunz, all the snow in the world and hope to do better; all the girls, better luck next time; Rick Moore, a long-lasting relationship, more than two weeks, and a haircut; Mark Kane, LUCK; Trampas Hammons, many more relationships.

I, Kim Ryder, leave Cara Adams, a turtle and a hard bird; Holly and Martha, long-lasting relationships with their GUYS!!; Rachel, another van on our side of the road; Catrina, my friendship forever; Mrs. Stewart, another me and Rachel; Amanda I., popcorn bowl and Geoga Lake cup; Rick and Trampas, Chex party mix and deer jerky; Susan and Doug, more intellectual conversations on the bus; Morgan, my love FOREVER!

I, Aracoma Sapanski, leave the class of 1992, a great future; Donald and Christie, a luxurious kitchen; Dara, someone else to ask your "famous questions" to; Heather, crash helmet one; Tawnya, crash helmet two and thanks for being the greatest friend I have ever had; Tate, don't forget to get a written statement from Mom, she forgets sometimes; Mother, I leave you love that will last forever; for my Sweetheart, Shawn David, I thank you for bringing so much happiness into my life. I hope our relationship grows strong. Remember no matter what, you will always have a place in my heart.

I, Philissa Shafer, leave Audrey, another big night; Susan, Mississippi; Becky, all the Chippendales; Molly, a redneck boyfriend; Joe, my friendship forever and may all your wishes come true; Big Joe, a tallend picture; Chuck, that specific girl (can't write anymore); Mrs. Rhea, a sex education talk show; Bland, a heater in the shop; Brad and Doug, a lifetime supply; Philena, all your dreams come true; Philippa, a good guy and a happy marriage; P.J., life at P.C.H.S.; Mathew, my love forever and our happiness together throughout life. I LOVE YOU!!

I, Lisa Sharp, leave Sarah, one of "the twins" and happiness forever; Laura, crazy dreams, funny stories, and your special bum!; Doug, detention for the teachers of your choice; Cameron, our book, "1001 Excuses for Temporarily Misplaced Homework"; Ben, a fuzzy-ear-shaver; Lindell, house full of small animals and a trumpet to torture them; Jamie, all my love and property rights to my couch; Ms. Vance, a copy of mine and Cam's book!; Ms. Seielstad, DC and the zoo; Doc, "real" students; Amy, an English man and five nights in Rome; Louis, a nightclub; my family, my love.

I, Leslie Ann Sheets, leave my family, all my love; the office, another aide like me; Mrs. Rhea, another Journalism class like ours; Mrs. Stewart, another hard working Adv. Accounting class; Cheryl, another night like the one at Larry's and more parties; Stacey, more football games and fun times in the parking lot; Missy, good times to come at the Shoe and the first "BUMP"; Dana, my friendly personality; Missy G. and Debbie, another trip to Fairmont; Joe, a "benny"; my brother, Michael, my good reputation; and to all those I missed, I leave my undying friendship.

I, John Shinaberry, leave Lewis, another good time at Mt. View; Terry, another doe so you'll be caught by Howard; Bobby, another welder to burn up; John G. and John B., another smoking booth 13; Keith H., G.T.A. Club; Mrs. B., another homeroom like us; Evelyn Beverage, more good cafeteria workers.

I, David Smith, leave Randall Coleman, a new chest and my intelligence; David Dilley, my little Dodge Colt; John Combs, a bottle of polo and my 5 mm; Dawn McLaughlin, another orthodontist person like me to travel with; Dana Cutlip, a bubble gum machine and a "finger tickler"; Missy Grimes, a Xerox copier that runs; Damian Elliott, an apple and an attitude adjustment; Amy Workman, happiness with whatever will satisfy her; Tina Madison, chocolate pudding and a hot tub;

Hope Kinnison, my morals; Jamie Burke, a lab partner with my steadiness; Mary Ann Carter, I leave her with me forever.

I, Daniel Sollday, leave Martin S., a desperately needed conscience; Lori, a mouth that will stay shut; Tim, patience to put up with Lori; Mike L., a frat party; Mike T., a set of handcuffs; Tina, a pair of rubber gloves; Brian W. and Brad D., many burnt brain cells; David C., a car that can equal my Jeep; Erica, the life of happiness you deserve; Sarah, a smile; to everyone I have missed, you have my apologies. I have limited words. Laura, you have my everlasting love.

I, Catrina Sparks, leave Ronnie Hall, a big hunk of cheese; Scarlett, another year; Cara, some bird food; Kim Ryder and Morgan McComb, some turtle food; Trampas and Rick, an unlimited supply of women; Tia, my usual spot; Jessie and Tiffany, all the good times they can handle; my daughter, Felicia, all my love; Mom and Dad, all my thanks, I couldn't have done it without you; Laura, all the Chippendale Dancers; Duane, leave me alone.

I, Michael Taylor, leave Stacy, a new car so you won't keep wrecking the wife's car; Mike T., a new brain; Matt, a new Ford and a good friendship; Travis, a new gun, the others wore out; John, more Wild Turkey; Traci, Donald and Billy; keep breaking them up; Wade and Vance, another like me; Mom and Dad, to support my brothers like you did me, I LOVE YOU; Mom-and Dad-in-law, to let me marry their daughter, Lauri, my love, the dream of lasting forever; my other baby, my Ford truck; keep giving the law a run.

I, Tawnya Terry, leave Mrs. B., another wonderful homeroom like ours; Aracoma, more great times and a car that won't wreck; Heather, a man named Joe; Dana, somebody to pick on you; Stacey, a book on how to be like Pat; Molly, a bouquet of petunias; John, a date with me and Doug; Hope, a birthday party with me; Chuck, a candy cane and more of

WILLS

Doc. Leary's movies; Doug, a lifetime of happiness and my love always.

I, Mike Thomas, leave Coleman, a date with any teacher or her daughter; Damian, a sense of humor; Dilley, Cass Fire Department coat; Smith, A. W. and my friendship; Matt, my good looks; Combs, Wooah!; Chris, anything your heart desires; Missy, my friendship forever; Thanks!; Erika, more nights on playground equipment; Coughlin, Sutton Run Shuffle and ability to beat me in tennis; Layne, partners forever; Mrs. B., anything you want, you deserve it; Stacy, to the girl that means more than anything to me, I leave my everlasting love; Mom and Dad, my thanks for being there and helping me through it all. I LOVE YOU!

I, Jessica Walton, leave Tiffany, my place in the school, my friendship always, and to find the guy of her dreams -- LOVE YA, SIS!; Rachel B., best wishes in all you do. You can make it without (Fred) ha ha!; to my parents, HAPPINESS! and LOVE to BOTH of you; Mrs. Beverage, the will-power to make it through life; Doria, happiness and the man of her dreams; to the love of my life - RUSTY LEE - my love always and happiness with me. I LOVE YOU - HONEY! Thanks for making my life happy and loving; to the Class of '92, GOOD LUCK - PARTY HARD!!

I, Angelena Ryder, leave Tina, 2 a.m. wake-up calls; Rachel, combos and tropical W.C.'s; Gary's gang, more games, songs, and hormonal discussions; the Toots gang, more good times; Brad, a birthday present; Jane and Jeff, more New Year's Eve parties and good times; the Beverages, the respect they deserve; Amy Workman, more volleyball and parties at Watoga; Mom and Dad, I could never repay you for all you've given me, I LOVE YOU; Thane, all my love FOREVER and EVER and a DAY.

I, Teresa Wilfong, leave Karen, my clothes and makeup; Mom and Dad, my money; Garland, my good looks; Evelyn Beverage and Pat Thompson, my dirty dishes; Ginny Arbaugh, my books; Sam Taylor, my hair for his bald spot; Fran Taylor, my jewelry; Nancy Green, my house; Tom Herold, my car.

I, Amy E. Workman, leave Mrs. Beverage, a homeroom like no other; David and Randall, more women talk; Hope and Tina, the artist and the unment lonables; Susan and Heather, George, John, Jack, and whatever his name was; Lori and Tim, a roommate and each other; James, Saturday Night Live talk; Kristi, the Workman attitude; Christine, burn ointment; Tawnya, more math papers to grade; Jamie, arrows, ears, and a colorful woman; Shawn, one whole orange; John and Francis, a girl; Dana, a Ford truck and my friendship forever; and to my one and only, Roy, my love, companionship, and more camping throughout our life.

I, Matt Workman, leave Dawnn, all my love and a lifetime together; David, a tank; Mrs. Beverage, a new sergeant-of-arms; Mr. Burns, another tractor driver; David S., my cousin; Mike, all the girlfriends you can handle; Joe, somebody else to beat up on you; Buss, Doctor Jones.

I, Ben Ziegler, leave Lindell, an argument you can't win; Martin and Mike, a tuning pipe; Jesse, head of the tuba section; Mr. Hall, Jesse (I tried); Mike Thomas, a sedative and a lie detector; Lisa, a great friendship and the best of luck (and a tree); Mindy, a poem that actually means something and a curly me; Marion, all the ski trips you can handle, a beautiful pair of skis and boots, this you can give me; Chris, your own lunch; Sarah, a bridge, pad, and pencil (and a great friendship); Mrs. B., another homeroom that is good enough to deserve you; everyone, a spoon and a fig.

TYPIST: DOTTIE MALCOM

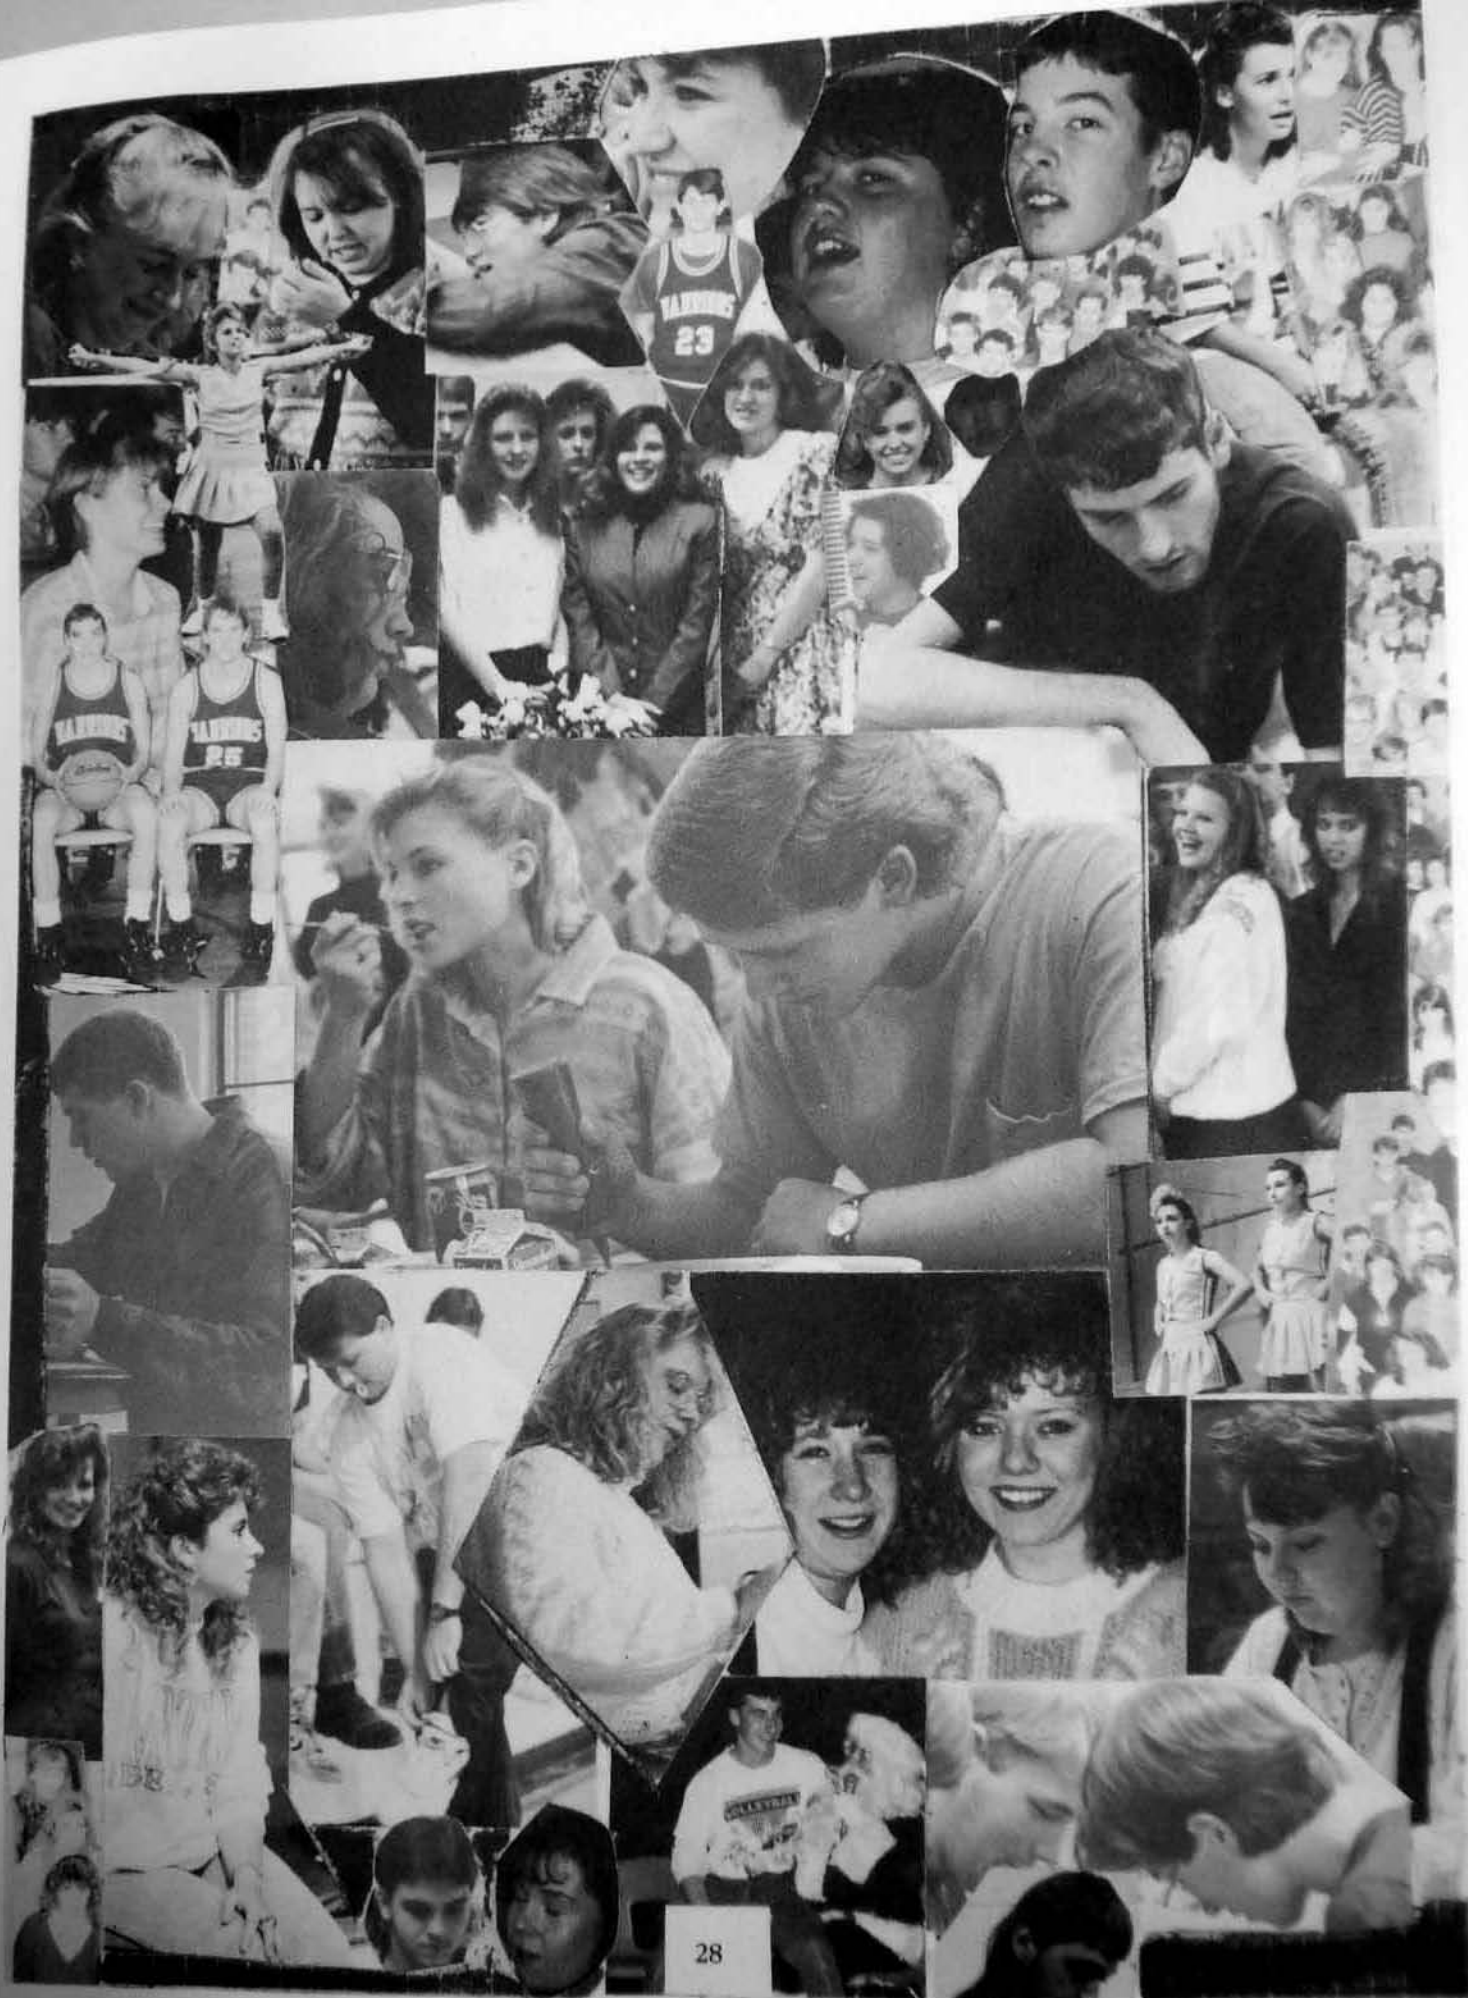

CLASS OFFICERS 1991-92

President—Amy Burks
Vice-President—Melissa Grimes
Secretary—Erika Heinemann
Treasurer—Heather Hanshew

CLASS SPONSORS

Mrs. Teresa Rhea, Director
Mrs. Linda Beverage
Mrs. Louise Flegel
Mr. Tom Herold
Mrs. Kathy McGee
Mrs. Pat Keller
Mrs. Fran Taylor
Mr. Sam Taylor
Mr. Richard Thompson

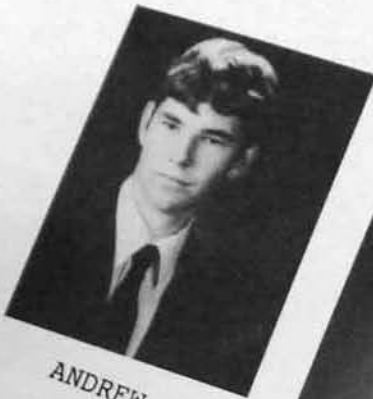

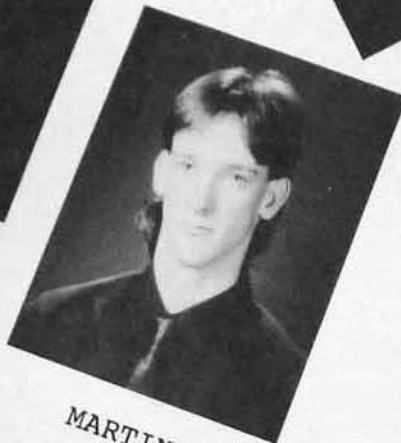

LAURA

JAMES

ANDREW

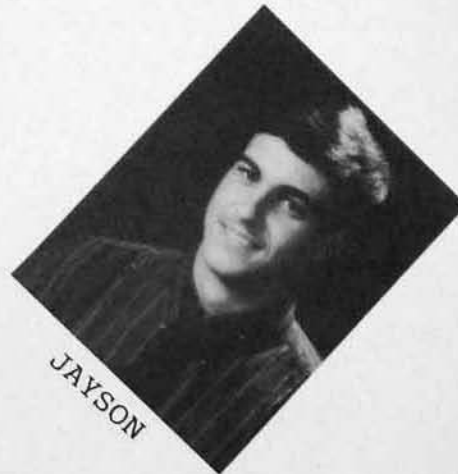

MARTIN

CHARLIE

AMANDA

JAYSON

SHANNON

TONI

TREANA

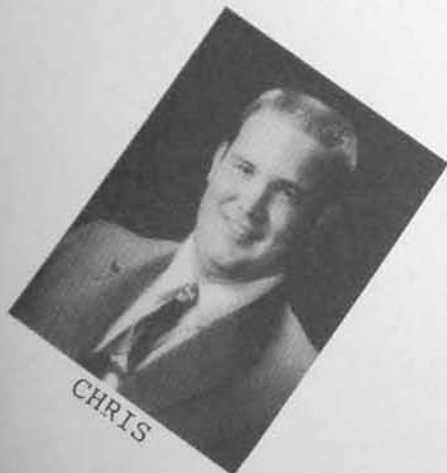

CARA

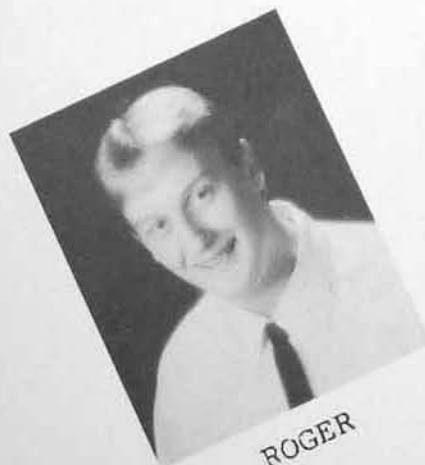

DEBBIE

CARRIE

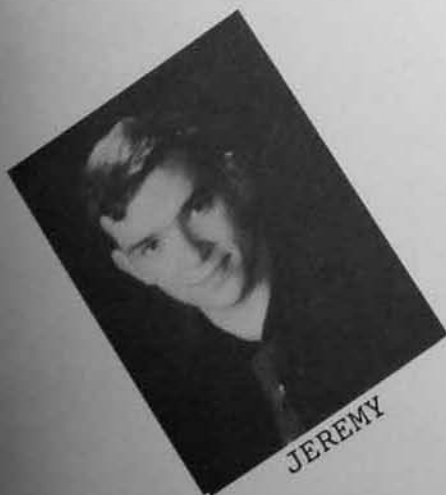

CHRIS

ROGER

JODI

JEREMY

HEATHER

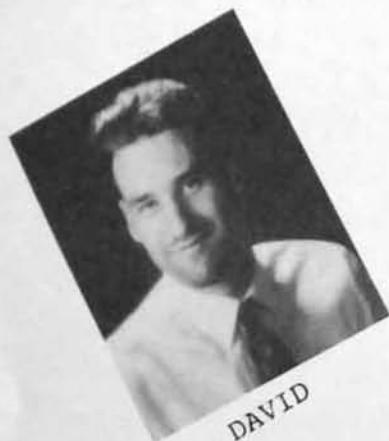

BILLY

SARAH

ANGIE

DAVID

LISA

TRACI

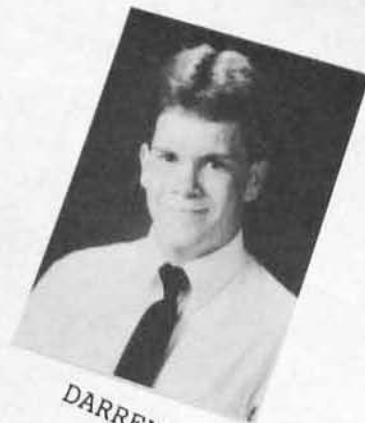

BRIAN

MARK

CHRISTIE

DARREN

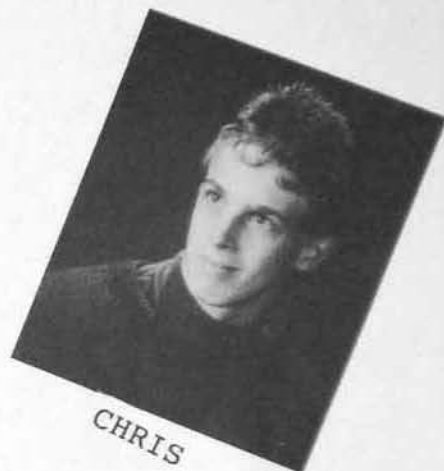

ALICE

SHAWN

MONICA

CHRIS

STEPHINA

SCARLETT

CHRISTA

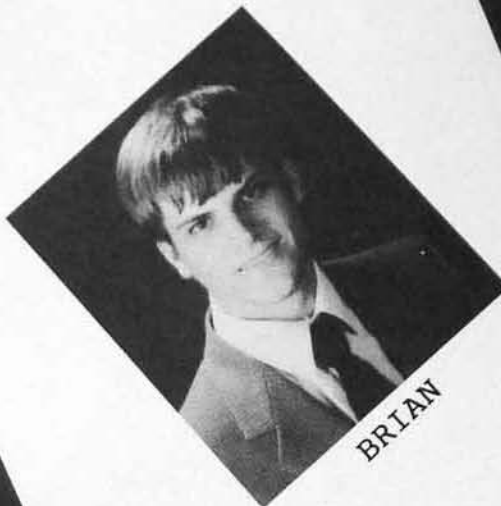

HOLLY

ANGIE

JASON

BRIAN

RONNIE

CARRIE

DAVID

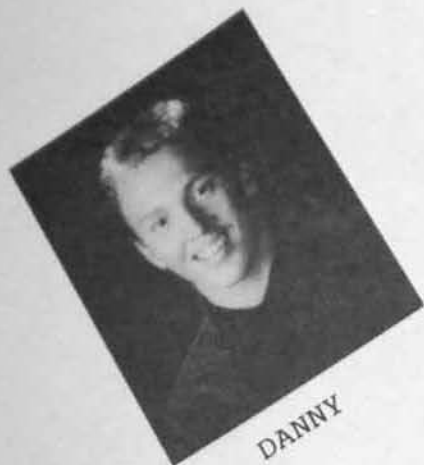

KIM

STEVEN

BRIAN

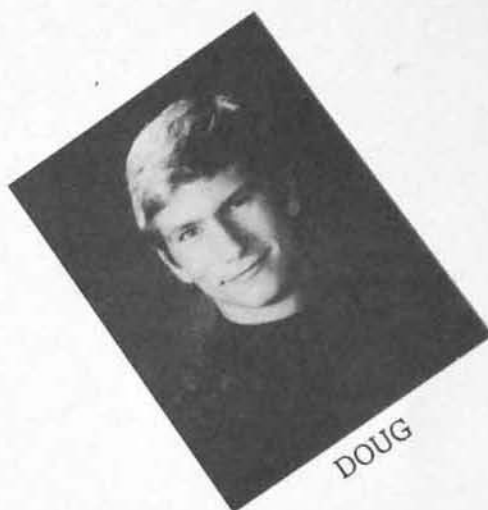

DANNY

SCOTT

MICHELLE

DOUG

JERRY

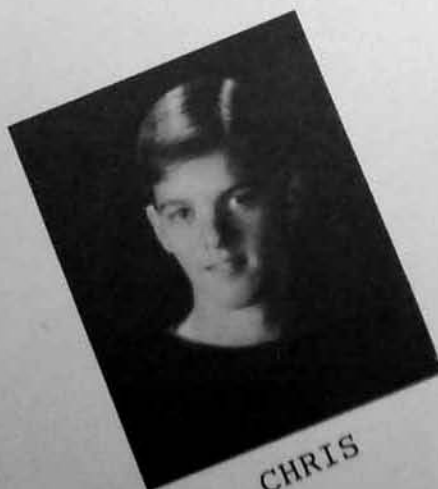

JASON

STEPHEN

CINDY

CHRIS

STEVEN

KIM

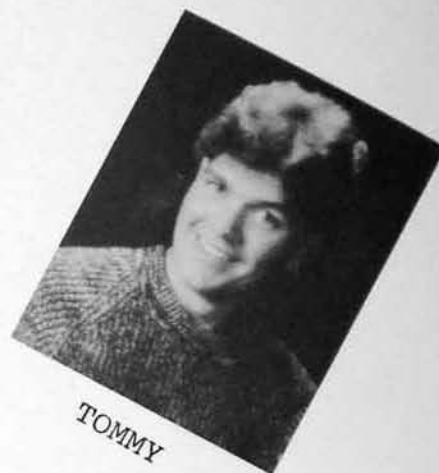

SAMMY

BRIAN

LAURI

TOMMY

BRIAN

CRYSTEL

MARTHA

BRIAN

BRIAN

GENE

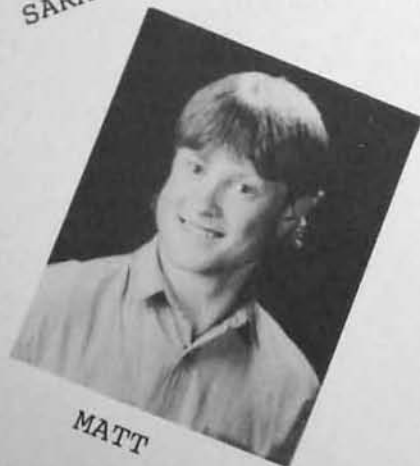

APRIL

SARAH

JOHN

MATT

LUCINDA

LEANNE

GREG

Janie Burke

To: Shawn, luck with a girl who won't "throw you the curve"; Chad, a math class to take next year; Jason L., help to get over the superintendent's son; label: Bev, a basketball scholarship; Jeff W., four years of patience to be my roommate; my sister Cindy, a lifetime of happiness with Scott; my parents, my love and the option to put them in an old folks home; Finally, to Marion, my one and only true love, I leave you a lifetime of happiness and love to be spent with me. You'll never know how much I truly and dearly love you, baby!

Chris McComb

To: Jessica, a long relationship; Amanda, another State Fair week; Holly, a man that's here; Marcey, lots of fun in the future; Kim, a man; to all my teachers, another kid just like me; Joe, a Ford; Watson, a woman; Randy, one of the best Ford's around; Greg, a haircut; Bosley, the ability to slam a basketball; Buzz, another State Fair week; Mathany, a woman; Cricket, a new Dodge; Brian Kelly, a shorter haircut; to all Freshmen, a really good life; Red, one more can of pop.

Christopher Matheny

To: Kimble, a ride on Slippery Rock and good luck with Melanie; Bosley, the ability to run the football in college without running into his linemen; Odie, a bigger car; Buzz, the ability to avoid another collision with me and also the ability to keep his knife in his pocket; Puff, better luck with women; Sean M., a girlfriend; Mark K., good luck with your trucks; C. Watson, another hog like me on the line; Mrs. Stewart, another student like me; Mr. Wade, revenge for all the things you did to me and the old grading system; Mom and Dad, happiness and my love.

Sammy Madison

To: Sam, the rough time I had in the mud and Black Beauty to the ones left behind the school.

Sarah Lehman

To: Angel, repair money for the dent in your car and driving lessons; Kim, a watch for every outfit and a date with a sexy guy; Toni, a quieter laugh and happiness with Brian; Carrie, a lifetime supply of nail polish; Amanda, a troll; Alice, less problems; Danny, a treestand with Melanie; Amy, a picnic table, Theresa and Brandy, more "interesting" talks in Chemistry; Micah, a girlfriend; Mrs. Leary, a date with Danny; my mom and dad, a trip to Hawaii; my mom, a trip to Disney World; Jeremy and Josh, my big mouth; Robbi, my love for you forever.

Toni Madison

To: Kim, a real date with her dream guy and all the french onion dip she can eat; Sarah, a lifetime with Robbi; Carrie, a house beside me; Angie, a fishing pole, there are alot of fish out there; Mrs. Burns, all the luck in the world, you will never have a greater student than me, Ha-Ha; Brian, the love of my life, I leave you my heart, I will always love you; and Tonja, happiness, luck, and please try to stay out of trouble because I will not be here to bale you out.

Tommy Livesay

To: David and Jerry, memories of good times; April, I leave you Ozzy Osborne; Leanna, thanks for getting me and Heather together, and good memories together; Vicky, thanks for EVERYTHING; Mom and Dad, love and happiness and the ability to live without me; Charlie and Cheryl, I promise to take care of your beautiful daughter and I love her forever; Heather, I'm all yours, and I love you more than anything. I will take care of you and your Kitty, (Sweet Cameo Patches); Christa, your dreams have finally come true, I'm gone!!; Teachers, see ya in the funny pages, Later!!

Hollie McDaniels

To: Joey, all of my love, the biggest buck in WVa, and a wonderful life together; Chris, a new companion in your Business classes with protection; Michelle, a pine toothpick, a room with a view, and a loaf of bread with a file; Mrs. Stewart, a new student as GREAT as me, and a room full of Chipendales; Amanda and Holly, all of the great memories of cheerleading; Christie, all the luck with Donald; Tina, Mr. Right; PJ, a REAL man; Martha, the best of luck with your family; Ted, GOOD LUCK!!

Crystel McMillion

To: Pam, a new lighter and plenty of energy; Mike, I hope you get your three favorite things; Herb, a new truck with a real nice engine; Donna, the good times and enough confidence to finish what she starts; Chris, I hope you get what you have been wanting all these years.

Stephina Powell

To: Jeff, my car and a tape store of your own; Alice, a bottle of fire and a guy to go with it; Carrie, chicken breast and a trip to the beach; Jeff, Alice, and Carrie, a friend like me; Mandy, a shoulder to cry on and a long happy life with Mark; Holly R. a nickel thats worth a million dollars; Debbie, ten kids; Mrs. Rhea, a student to have the ability to type like me; Mrs. B., a jewelry store; Mom, my room spotless; the rest of my family, love and thankfulness; the rest of my friends, Peace Dude!

Michelle Beverage

To: Melissa, PCHS; Johnny, teachers at PCHS; Hollie, happiness, luck, no more cats, Joey; Makala, more laughs and rodeos; Tina, less confusion; Kim, happiness and Eric; Scarlett, Good Luck; Scott, nonstop laryngitis; Brian S., a dishwasher; Kristy D., gossip; Chris M., a woman; Angel, anyone you want; Robin B., happiness and luck; Christie, Donald, Army, Good Luck!!; Brian V. a revoked license; Mom and Dad, less gray hair, my love forever, and thanks; Class of '93, Good Luck and memories; and last but not least, Kevin, me and my love, a new truck and happiness forever; anyone else I forgot, best wishes and good luck.

Shawn Cain

To: Laura, I leave my address for the year 1999; Monica, all the happiness in the world; Marci luck with the guys; Kristie, a new brother; Mrs. Burns, a science seminar class as good as the one I was in; Leslie, a Mustang; Laura and Rachel, the white stuff in the middle of and Oreos; the guys, Jamie, Chad, and Jason, I leave you all the pretty women I don't need, some cheddervascent clothes, and a sunny day to golf on; Robin, thanks for being my best buddy, I leave you all the love and happiness a person can give; everyone else, lots of money.

Mark Kane

To: Lauri, best of luck with Mike; Danny, best of luck with your friend Travis Shinaberry; Chris M., another chance with Ronda S.; Buzz, a rubber pocket knife; Bosely, the ability not to tear up your parents vehicle; Marcy, good luck with Stephen; Jimmy V., a new Chevy truck; Chris B., to take more classes on hunter's safety; Soapy, more soap on a rope; Holly, my Dallas Cowboy t-shirt; Jake, a new truck; Stephen, another trip like Richmond; Mrs. Burns, the thought of not having to put up with me in your homeroom next year; Joe, a set of jumper cables; Mr. Burns, a new neck brace.

Debbie Tinney

To: Scarlett, a counselor; Pam, french fries; Brien V., driving lessons; CJ, a valentine; Martha, my friendship forever; Mrs. Stewart, another Chris; Stephina, a test drive; Chrissy, car; Holly, a rainstorm; Mom and Dad, a son, Brian; Puff, a new PLUM; Jennifer, a diploma; Steven, happiness with me thanks for everything that you have done for me! I'm glad that we are still together after all of this time, you mean more that life to me. Thanks for standing beside me through both good and bad times I want to be part of your life from here to eternity. Love Ya.

Leslie Goldizen

To: Brandy, Romeo and a happy life with Randy; Lisa, a good looking doctor to work for, and "J"; April, my friendship; Mom and Dad, my love and happiness for always being there for me; Angel, better driving skills; Michelle, a happy future with Kevin; Christina, my intelligence, Pebbles and Dino, and the man you always dream of having; Heather, a bright future with Tommy; Mrs. Vanreenen, another aide like me; Mrs. Howell, my shorts outfits and my laugh; Jeff, a life with Madonna; Cynthia, good luck your senior year, and a happy life with the one you love; Seniors, best wishes.

Amanda Bennent

To: Aleisha, Tara, Holly, Ronda, and Anita, the ability to make it through the next 3 years without me; Larry, someone else to pick on; Leslie, our friendship and good times; Amy, the ability to drive; Carrie, all the men; Angie, patience and a cup of ice; Sarah, lots of luck with Robbie; Alice, all the luck in the world; Danny, ability to make up better lies; David, all my love and a lifetime of happiness together; my brother Brian, the ability to graduate (2003); Mom and Dad, lots of love and thanks for standing by me through school.

Greg Bennent

To: Kelly, I leave a partner to cheat off; Ry and Martin, plenty of days to party; Joe, the ability to remember to turn off your parking lights at Lewisburg; Randy and Chris, I leave them a truck they can't break; Sarah, I leave my friendship and my heart, the ability to not be late, all my love, my life, and my spirit; all my underclassmen friends, I leave good times and a great future; I want to leave my best friend my memory--you know who you are.

Carrie Hall

To: Steph, I leave El Poca parking lot and Hardees; Jeff, I leave Madonna, she'll be yours one day; Brian, all the great times; Shannon, a descent girlfriend; Ry, all the water I need; To the back of the bus, our dream team, all the best times for the future, and a heater!; Brady, I leave me; Lauri and Mike, the future Jason Sharps; Snipe, hunting; Angel, Va. Beach; Richard, all my love; Alice, 10 humps and notes; Shawn, I leave you a better weekend and a cure; Mr. Shank, all the rumors; Traci, a hard time; my family, my thanks.

Cara Adams

To: Tiffnay, rice patties, our friendship, thanks for everything; Byrd, love and happiness for many more years to come, I Love You!; Ry, more trips to Snowshoe; Jerry P., a safe ride home; Tina, more episodes with Rita; Stephanie, get me an ambulance quick!; Lauri, the ability to pass English and graduate; Robin, to do anything you want without getting caught; Lelie, a new quarter to flip; Stacy, life without cerfew; David, a sister-in-law like me; Scarlett, a clear path to crawl through; Mom and Dad, thanks for everything you've done for me, I love you both.

Scott Sharp

To: Brian, some b-ball skills and Daytona Beach; Steven, some money for driving lessons and a new body; Jason, two more years of high school; Sharp, pool lessons; Angela, a real team; Mr. Tupper, a Super Bowl champion and a student like me; Cheryl, a piece of gum; Darren, my tape; Brooksie, more trips like Petersburg; Marcy, Ruby, Algebra II class; Kim, Eric; Tina, Brian; Brad, Jamie; Monica, another night like Lewisburg; Refner, a bag of groceries; Brien, another car; Holly, a good man; Kim, a toy to play with; Michelle, Kevin; Hollie, Joey and the baby.

Lisa Howard

To: Leslie, more fun times, a special date with Mr. Special; Brandy, a black Chevy, a great life with Wandy and more summers like 1992; John D., a Chevy; Della, great life with Kevin; Mr. Hall, another great aide like me also another great cymbal player; Christina, more trips to Richwood and Seebert, more times scopin out the guys in Marlinton, and that special cowboy; Mrs. Stewart, another Advanced Accounting Class; Cindy, more parties like B.J.'s; Terrie, a great life with John Paul; Jodi, more people like me to help in the computer lab; Mom and Dad, my love; Seniors, best wishes!

Angel Halterman

To: Sarah, I leave another summer like 1992; Carrie, I leave a brain and a trip to Virginia Beach; Lauri, a happy life with Mike; Mrs. Stewart, a class like 5th period; Doug, a real job; Christina, another trip to Richwood; Melinde and Danny, a happy life together; Tina, a happy life with Bryan; Brad S., a haircut; my brother, my reputation; Chris S., an older girl; Amy G., the football team; Robin, a life with that someone special; Michelle, a happy life with Kevin; Ronnie, a real life; Nancy, another aide like me; Gina, a real boyfriend; my Mom and Dad, my love.

Christina Jackson

To: Jennifer, energy to make it through high school and a SINGLE man; Gidget, height and a redheaded boyfriend; Jason, JOHNNY!; Lisa, another night at Seebert and more "deer" hunting; Wilma, Fred; Angel, Pizza Hut in Richwood; Cindy, Kevin; Dawn, a ballgame; Michelle, another night in Hillsboro and more bus chasing; Mr. Burns, more "brownies" like this year's; Shinaberry and Sharpie, another Friday the 13th with a hearse; Bob, Rod, Andy, and the rest of you guys, another trip to Kansas City with the Jefferson girls; Sister Calhoun, another English class and more bus rides; Matt, how 'bout that date?; C-ya!

Kim Hall

To: Monica, more nights at the Elementary School; Amanda, Randall; Kristy, height; Tina, friendship 4-ever, memories of the good time, happiness with Mr. Durbin; Holly, more Typing II conversations, friendship forever; Martha, happiness with Edgar and Corey; Cindy, a steady relationship; Stacey, a good man; Mrs. Stewart, another student like me; Scarlett, another night in Bartow; Freddy, memories and friendship 4-ever; Mom and Dad, Thanks for everything; PJ, a gossip column; Andy, foot; Steven, KFC freezer; Eric, snowdays, laundry rooms, another night in Elkins, a softer pool t, a lifetime with me and my love always. I LOVE YOU!

Angie Coleman

To: Cindy, lifetime supply of tissues and Mr. Wonderful in cowboy boots; Puff, a heart felt apology and a request to make it all up to you; Darren, anything and everything you want and more memories; Marty, a girl to treat you good; Travis, I'll never give up; Kelly, all the pizza you can eat and a great senior year; Toni, happiness and the guy you love and all the Honey Dew you can handle; Mr. Rexrode and Mrs. Leary, thanks for being there for me; Hardrock, all I can say is that I'm sorry; everyone else, have a great life!

Laura Payne

To: Stacy, your dream apartment, a guy (with hair) that kisses you on the cheek, a meteor, freedom; Leslie, a cabin, the drummer from Megadeath, a meteor, 156 more times; Joanna, the ability to know when Wednesday is; Sarah, New York, all the above thanks for for the friendship, love, laughter, memories, and for understanding, I'll search the world over and never find friends like you; Tate, Martin, Ry, another Chemistry class; Ms. Blankenship, a camera with unlimited film; Marion, a long happy life; Robin, jerk repellent; Shawn, happiness; my family, thanks, love, and happiness; Scott, Colorado; PCHS, never give up hope.

Shawn Bosely

To: Buzz, my knife, Mrs. McGee, and a girl that don't mind; Wally, a beach; Mickle, new jacket and a rat in a sack; Amy A., a bet with the football team she can keep; Burns, an injury free week; Tina, an attitude; Kelly, enough money for a haircut; Stump, some coordination; Matheny, the ability to get out of my way while blocking; Naid, a skinny woman; Amanda, a hug and a helmet; Mrs. Stewart, another Bosely; Watson, a higher verticle leap; Kristy, another night at Mike's; Lauri, some ear plugs; Tom, Belinda.

Felinda Burdette

To: Richard, lots of love with me; Treana, more good times; Alice, luck and our camp song; Angie M., Weener; Jeff, Danny, Holly, and Martha, lots of luck; Stephina, lollipops; Wong Dong, another night at the fair; Doc, another student like me; Mrs. Leary, Danny and students like Treana and me; Mr. Bland, more good Hort. students like Treana and me; Mrs. Stewart, the ability to win the lottery; Mrs. Beverage, lots of luck; Paul, another girl to call trouble; Katrina and Mom, lots of love and happiness, thanks for being there when you're needed; All the rest, best of luck.

Roger Tingler

To: Eva, my devoted love to you; Alice, my true friendship and remembrance of all the good times; Leanna, ability to overcome all of life's obstacles; April, dinner at McDonalds; Heather, an outfit without polka-dots; Tommy, ability to put up with Heather; Mr. Hall, a student with as much talent as me; Felinda, another eighth grade trip to Kings Dominion; Regina, one night with Garth Brooks and M.S.; Jeff, Madonna on a silver platter; Stephina, driving lessons; Billy and Traci, a wonderful life together; Tia, another year in Biology; The Senior Class, good luck in the future in whatever you all do.

David Reed

To: Martin, a bottle of Visine and every tape Bob Marley ever made; Terrie, a car that has cheap insurance; Jerry, a car that runs and a Stihl hat; Tommy, lots of little kids; Brian, a case of Mt. Dew; Dwight, the biggest drum set ever made; Zigg, another hard working student like me; Mr. Hall, another great drummer like me; To everyone else, I leave everything illegal and immoral.

Stacy Sharpes

To: Laura, all the happiness you deserve, my emerald ring (NOT), a wonderful future, love ya; Leslie, Nick Menza, my hair to have or to hold, girls' nights out, GHA memories, a great life, love ya; men, heartaches, you deserve them; Joanna, more barn parties, my eternal friendship, love ya; Mom and Dad--you gave me more than I deserved, thanks, love you, you'll get that cruise to the Bahamas, I promise!; Ali, luck for the next three years, a skiing partner as good as me, I'll miss you next year!; Remember, my dorm room is your room!, I love you!

Leslie M. Hollandsworth

To: My sintwister Stacy, true love with a long haired bazillionaire, absolute freedom, "answerelanfay", memories of dancing under the stars, my friendship forever; My other sintwister, (Are we actually siplet tristers?), Laura, magic, true love, nine rugrats, R. in the dark, memories-windows down, music on, dreams, my friendship forever; Joanna, 20 ounce Cokes from Hades, Alice's Restaraunt on CD, a lime, my friendship; Sarah, your inner child, friendship; Brandy and Little Alison, happiness; Dave(id), complete Led Zepplin Collection; Shannon, another busmate like me; Martin, Ren and Stimpy, videos; Doc, chapter one calculus test; Mrs. Vance, Mrs. Siellstad, and Charlie--Thanks.

Brian Shinnaberry

To: Seniors, lots of luck and memories; Scarlett, plenty of happiness with Jamie; Amanda, a date; Garber, three girls from Jefferson; John Micheal, a chance to see Alissa again; Tina, happiness with Brian; Jodi, someone else to pick on her; Doug, bigger car; Puff, my C.B.; Jason, a good woman; Robert, a Chevy 4 x 4; Bland, a few more trips to Kansas City; Mark, a few more trips to Circlesville with Jake; PJ, a couple dozen roses and a date alone; Kelly, luck in whatever you do; Snipey, a better woman; Chris, a trip to Keyser; Kristie Calhoun, a real school.

Robin Burgess

To: Christie, remedy for worrying and happiness with Donald; Cynthia, more "spill your gut" bus trips; Shannon B., a get out of jail free card and a lunch box like mine; Michelle B., another year of chemistry and happiness with Kevin; Scott S., a muzzle and duck tape; Joanna, a baby skunk in sheep's clothing; "Mikey" S., REASONING that allows "people" to use the restroom down the hall; Brian B., a trip to the cooler; Angel, a deer-proof car Shawn C., my friendship forever and best wishes; Mr. Hall, someone else to harass; Last but surely not least, Dr. Leary, a teal undergarment from 92's Madame DiFarge, "OK"?

Martin Coleman

To: Jason S., a bed and towel of your own; Rachel, a car; Carrie, a Pepsi; Toni M., night at a football game; Kristie C., blond joke; Travis B., more nights at Sutton Run; Travis S., a phone of your own; Cindy G., a bathroom; Mrs. Stewart, a computer that works; Sharron, a Bac.; Hardrock, a long night with Angie; Carrie H., a better seat in Psyc.; Cindy, a cowboy or redneck, a trip to Virginia Beach, California, my advice, and my ear any time you need to talk; Angie C., my advice, the stud, a long night with Hardrock; Kelly V., a better ride next time.

Alice Defibaugh

To: Jeff, someone else to pick on, luck with the ladies, and a bottle of FIRE; Steph, that handsome hunk, a little red matchbox, and Clarksburg; Carrie, a new funny bone; Roger, all the great times; Treana, country music and Garth; Felinda, a vacation and much hapineess; Amanda, life without a Danny Kimble and a troll; Danny, a pair of Chippewas; Sean, a set of dentures; Giggles, a pack of crackers; Jason Sharp, a long life; Mrs. Stewart, the famous quote "He's everywhere, He's everywhere" and Kenny Rogers; Class of 1993, good times and best wishes!

Christa Arthur

To: My family, all my love; Mom and Dad, peace and quiet; Tommy and Heather, happiness and a real vehicle; Jason, a true love; Teresa and the Crew, PARTIES!, PARTIES!, and more PARTIES!; Ry, the ability to fly forever, Rolling Stoners, Tom's Eagle snacks, Mountain Dew, and smoothies; Tabby and Beth, many more cold bus rides and all the men you can handle; Dwight and Scottie, a one-way ticket to heavy metal stardom; PCHS, birth control; underclassmen, good-bye, good luck, God bless, and have fun next year, 'cause I'm outta here!; Class of 1993 parties on!

Lucinda Armstrong

To: Michelle, a little buddy like me and Hanks last name; Thelda, all the "things" that I have borrowed from you; Mrs. Beverage, another kind hard worker like myself; Suzie, all the plants you can grow; Nick, someone to take my seat on the bus; Larry and Jamie, all my books; Mr. Rexrode, another fast Lucy; Mr. Bland, someone else to remind him of his wife; Mrs. Stewart, another gossip; Paul, someone else to squeeze; Travis, a date; Larry and all the upcoming Seniors, good luck; my family, thanks for being there and helping me to make it to graduation.

Chris Beverage

To: Brian, I leave all the good times and partying; Shannon, I wish you all the luck with the women; Danny, I leave you with a hard time and a good friendship; Carrie, I leave you as the blond; Jerry, a good friend and basketball player; Darren, the geekferd but a good friend; Susan, one I won't get to pick on next year; Mr. Rexrode, you won't get to pick on me next year; to my parents, for standing by me when I needed someone's support; Aunt Veda, for encouragement and support all through my life; love you all forever.

Jeremy Burke

To: Angie, a man who is worthy of your beauty; Carrie, the perfect life so you won't complain; Danielle, the perfect body, even though yours is it; Ms. Leary, the truth; Doc, the chance to go back and stay in school; Amanda, a cowboy to ride; To my friends, I leave the secrets of the universe, all my knowledge and my help if you ever need it; To every one I know, I leave a place inside for all.

Tina Dean

To: Matt, highrocks, kisses and a busted lip!; Monica, a man who deserves you, and a great college life; Cara, Rita, no rules; Kristy, itchy boxes, no more waiting and happiness; Amanda, cookies and Randell; Christie, Donald; Steven, that 20-year date; PJ, parties, real men, chases, friendship, and LOVE!; Kim, Eric, friends like Jessica, our memories, college, friendship forever, Thank! for everything; Scarlett, Mr. Collins, no Andy, many nights in Durbin, and our great friendship; PC, memories; Scott, Middle School memories; Mom, Dad, love, and a paralegal success; Bryan, nights like the first and many trips to the farm.

Kristie Calhoun

To: a certain Sophomore, a picture of David and me to put in her locker; Marty, all of my dirty blonde jokes; Mary Kate, many more plates of spaghetti, new white bibs, and more bags of popcorn; Eric, luck in Advanced Word Processing; Danielle, many long bus rides with annoying people; Sharon, someone to eat lunch with outside the "big room"; Doug, something to tell me about me; Shawn, a sugar cane and tie; Randy and Brian, a blonde thing; Christina, another bus ride or two; Lora, luck to make it the whole four years here; Terri, more blueberry suckers.

Kristy Dilley

To: Amanda, luck with Randall and friendship; Tina, more times with Bryan and another friend like me; Monica, another year like our Sophomore, a guy who will buy you everything you want; Bosley, "Attitude" and all the girls you can handle; Kim, Eric; Kristi, my brother; Mrs. Rhea, another Aide like me; Stephen Irvine, everything you want in life, a girl who will treat you with respect, you deserve it!; Lauri, happiness with Mike, our great memories; Mom and Dad, Thanks for everything, I will miss you; Mr. Rexrode, Please don't forget "Smarties";

Chris Taylor, many memories and all my Love!!!

Lauri Hess

To: Angela, Mark's last name, friendship and best of luck; Terri, "LIPS"; Amanda, more "treats" after school; Shawn, "you're killin' me"; Stephen, more love life, talks, and dinners at Henry's; Amy, a muzzel; Cara, a full day; Carrie, a car; Jimmy, ditches; JM Kane, a date; PJ, Missy-Mike "NOT"; Rebecca, longer pants; Traci, 4' mudholes, luck in life; Stephina, new knees; Kristi, Mountaineer Mart, Good Luck; Taylors, mouth clamps; Mark, flying basketballs; Kristy, luck with Chris, memories, and great friendship; Mom and Dad, I couldn't do it without you, THANKS! I love you!; Mike, my love through our lifetime together!

Amanda Irvine

To: Mom, Dad, Fane, lots of thanks, I love you; Rachel, Tim, nerves of steel for next year; Janelle, paper bags; Holly, friendship forever, Loral Run; Chris McComb, party of three at his house; Kristy, Tina, Kim, Monica, night at Friar Tucks; Christie, bunsen burner; Lauri, more bathrooms; Cheerleaders, places to practice springs; Brian Beverage, another knee to squeeze; Shana, Jason life together; Steven Irvine, Kim Farmer, each other; Randy, a pooh bear; Martha, trips to Lewisburg; Brian Shinaberry, my disk; Chris Taylor, my clown pants; Brad Sisler, Shawn Bosley, a group hug; Odie, Girlfriend named Garfield; Randall, lots of love.

Christie Rose

To: My dear friend, Robin I leave more phone chats and an enduring friendship; Kristie, I wish you'd come sooner, but I've enjoyed our friendship and leave you with David's picture; Scarlett, Ann's presence; Tina, a library video; Cynthia and Michelle, more fun in Journalism; Michelle, cronnie; Mrs. Rhea, more pragmatic me's; Mrs. Stewart, her friend; Mom and Dad, you've given me so much and I'll forever love you; Donald, you'll always be my ducky and I'll give you my love for a lifetime; To my little cousin Gina, remember I'll be watching you!

Scarlett Sharp

To: Debbie, happiness and a lifetime with Steve; Kim, Eric and friendship forever; PJ, a friend with a mouth as big as hers; Tina, all my friendship and a town of her own named Durbin; Mr. Hall, a real job; Holly, a big yellow Chevy and a long walk down Jerico; Brian, one night alone with PJ; Smiley, all his code books already done; Jamie Walker, any girl who will have him; Zig, a can of hair; Doug, another friend like me; Monica, a hard time; Sharon, another party; Jamie, another night like February 6, 1993 and all my love forever.

Heather Stanley

To: April; my jeans and John Wayne on a swing; Leanna, a psychiatrist; Jayme, C.A.G.I.; Teresa, your own hospital; Angie, 5-7-9; Danny, another childhood; Carol, everlasting smile; Jeff another ride on the ferris wheel; Roger, incantation; Stephina, another test drive; Christa, one last run through the malls; Leary, pregnant paisleys; Hall, another Band-Aid; Tommy, I love you more that words can say; Mom, Dad, I love you both, thanks for everything. I love you, I love you, I love you!!! Sugar, forever lasting love and happiness, I'll always be thinking about you; Sweet Cameo Patches, a wonderful life with Tommy and me.

Gene Tracy

To: Mr. Rexrode, my famous world map; Jayson Hefner, a Puke Bag; Darren Galford, a copy of the Sports Illustrated Swimsuit Issue; Robert Doyle, a bottle of what I cannot say; Jerry Ryder, a big-screen TV; Chris Sheets, all of the memories of track; Eric Mulenque, all of my Physics papers; Brad Carpenter, my good looks; To the rest of the faculty, I'll leave them with the honor of having such a wonderful student as me!

Brien Vanreenen

To: Stephen, more time to work on the wagon; Mark, a long and happy life with your Dallas shirt; Shannon, someone who is stupid enough to leave his car unlocked; Brian, a few more wrestling matches; Vinnie, a little more brains; Debbie and Steve, my friendship for life and Debbie a bird feeder she almost won; Danny, a new knife; Jimmy, a lifetime supply of TortillaChips; Chris, a bullet proof shoe and a gun; Mom, good luck with Matt; Dad, better health and love; Matt, a good 9 years of school; Joe, my driving ability.

Monica Varner

To: Kristy, another year like our Sophomore year, and lots of luck with Chris Taylor; Tina, a life without Country Boy, more good times with Bryan, and lots of fun at college; Kim, Eric, and good times at college; Amanda, a great life with Randall and more friends like me; Brain Beverage, maybe a chance someday and lots of parties; Damian, one more try and better luck this time; Volleyball team, a better season next year; Jay-fer, a great season in B-ball next year; Mom and Dad, lots of love forever; Chris, memories of us, sorry about everything, I love you.

April Wanless

To: Heather, happiness forever and the good times; Tommy, my best friend; Mr. Hall, my antique guitar and guitar lessons; Michelle, John Micheal and the intersection; Ray, another bus trip; Andy, my legs; Jayme, my mind; Leslie, your wildest dreams; Rodger, another walk around the school; Leanna and Robert, a happy life; Carrie, another word processing class; Jodi, a rich man; Sean, another trip through the lunch line; Chris, another magazine; Randy, another Geometry class; Felinda, another welding class and 9th grade gym class; Mom, Dad, Amanda, and Richard II, all my love and one million dollars; Mike, another chance NOT!!

Leanna Waugh

To: Heather, all my jewelry and the name of a good plastic surgeon; April, all my country tapes and the name of a good agent; Robert, all my eternal unyielding love; Roger, a normal laugh and Mrs. Right; Jeff, a giant pepperoni pizza and a Madonna CD; Mr. Hall, piano lessons and patience; Tommy, Heather and 20 kids; Susan, Mr. Right and wonderful memories of Brian and Amanda; Brain, happiness, all my love, our memories, and the tears we all cried for you; Mom, all my love and 100,000 dollars; Debbie, a better life.

Treanna Waybright

To: Mom and dad, a rope to tie up all the love you gave out to me; Felinda, a better life and more laughs; Alice, a decent guy who really cares for you; Sean, a box of Efferdent to clean your dentures; Angie Meeks, one cup of sugar; Doug Cassell, ears and a heart for listening and not saying a word; Laura Jane, a cowboy; Mrs. Leary, a student with my gossip ability; Mr. Bland, my green thumb; Mrs. Stewart, my graduation cap and gown; Stephina, the rest of my remaining candy and suckers; the Class of 1993, Best of Luck.

Brian Withers

To: Mike H., more women than he can handle; Brad, skis; David, new car and a can of fix-a-flat; Doug, your own little Nissan; Sharon Morgan, another night at the movies and a new football team; Brian and Chris, more trips in the ditch; Mr. Wade, a new head of hair; Coach Sheets, pair of Chippewas for basketball practice; Ms. Blankenship, another good librarian like myself; Cindy and Debbie, all five Chippendales; Regina, more rides in that red Jeep; Tina, more fun days of hunting; Mom and Dad, thanks for everything you've done for me and helped me through; Missy, a piece of my heart.

Brian Young

To: Shannon, a baseball career with the Braves; Ry, to be the best snowboarder ever and a never ending supply of products; Carrie, the greatest life a person could ever have; Stephina, a car; Jeff, Madonna; Chris, a gun with a safety; Jessica, a future full of men; Darren, to play ball with Michael Jordan; Chris, a car that can't be hurt; Jason, better luck with the women; Brien, a new Ford truck; Mr. Beverage, another great student like me; Mrs. McGee, another person to pick on; To the rest of the Senior class, a long life and a great future.

Billy Vandevender

To: Jimmy, better luck with the law; Danny, a Dallas shirt; Shannon, a fencing operation; Mark, the big town of Durbin; Ronnie, an old Ford pick-up truck; Mom and Dad, all my love and thank you; Connie and Mike, all my love and me for a son-in-law and more time for each other; Mike, a nap on my couch; Connie, a chance to romp on it; Traci, me and my love forever, I love you; and to everyone I forgot, Good Luck!

Jason Sharp

To: Scott, pool lessons; Robert, burning tires at Stillwell; Cricket, a truck; Mary Kate, a Brian; Becki, a real football team like Da-boy's; Darren, a pecan tree; Angie, better luck; Puff, women, women; Friel, a cedar tree; Ray, a raincoat; Doodle, another ride on the activity bus; Beverage, trip to Daytona; Mr. Burns, another National Championship; McComb, a Chevy truck; Grimes, a Christmas tree; B. Shinnaberry, Allysa from Jefferson; Snipey, fun while we're at Glenville; Kenny M., Kim Farmer; J.M. Kane, a smussy; Garber, a dunk in a game; Joe L., some vitamins; (feet) Marty C., some shoes; Dege, a dollar; Morgan, a new broom; Ashley, Christopher.

Martha Ryder Friel

To: Debbie, another 6th street and life-long happiness with Steve; Traci, THE alley and roof in Durbin; Kim Hall, a great life and Eric; Dawn, a house full of kids and Roy; Kim, to a great sister, love and happiness always; Holly, a love that will last; Mom and Dad, thanks for all the help, I Love You; To my husband Edgar, you've always been there for me I give you all my love and many more years of happiness together; Last but not least, to my son Corey, I love you and will be there for you always.

Angela Meeks

To: Amanda, half of L.A., the guy from Krogers; Sharon, the ability to screw things up; Aleisha, another me to get ice for; Leslie, another year at PCHS; Cindy, the ability to go out without getting caught; Angie, more guys to flirt with; D.J., my chewed gum in my locker; All of the Seniors, Party On!; and to my daughter Dawn, I leave all of my love and happiness throughout your life!; and to my Mom and Dad, thanks so much, I love you!

Carrie Simonin

To: Amanda, a blind date, and more nights like homecoming, and that special someone; Amy, a younger guy, someone else to cut up on the bus with; Angela, more secrets, and another friend like me; Leslie, another Saturday night; Stacy, another late party, and another night like homecoming; Jeremy, a hard time, another friend like me; Danielle, another Spanish trip; Outlaw, another Friday night, and an eight ball; Anita and Holly, a drivers license; Mrs. Leary, my ability to tell it like it is; Dad and Mom, love and happiness and thanks for standing by me.

Frances Kellison

To: My daughter Savanna, I leave you all my love, happiness; Susie, men who will be good to you; Natalie, I leave you all the fun with - - - ; Sean M., all the good times we had together; to my niece, all of the luck in the world; Larry, a job and a new car; Toni, good luck with Brian; Mrs. Beverage, I leave you the vacation of your dreams; Mr. Shank, some of my hair; to Jerry P., I leave you a girl who looks and acts just like me; Best Wishes to the Class of '93".

Carrie McKenny

To: Kim, a full tank of gas and a glass of milk

and all the chocolate in the world, a good looking man, happiness, and our friendship forever; Toni, happiness and Brian W.; Jodi, all the guys in the world; Andy, a truck that runs, a girlfriend just like me, more fun times, and the ability to drive just like me, and our friendship; Mom and Dad, love and happiness; Darin, my contacts and a life time job at Foodland, and a good looking girl, and lots of money; Brian F., a lifetime with me with lots of love and happiness forever.

Shannon Boehmer

To: Brian, all of the products for the "bissness"; Scott, to live the rest of his life in 6th; Randy, the "Kenwood"; Terrie and Angela, their own tanning beds; Mark, a lifetime supply of 9mm; Cris, the "500"; Brian, his own little tropical island; Robin, a lunchbox; Travis, his own little Sutton Run; Shawn, a tooth; Billy, a slingshot; Traci, less stress; April, 5th all over again; Tupper, one more just like me; Hall, 2200 pennies; Karie, the "Boing"; (T.H.) all of my love.

Cindy May

To: Angie, the courage to bungee jump and more nights at the rock; Marty, a life full of happiness and someone to share it with; Cindy, Keanu Reeves; Allison, my trash can and the ability to find her feet; Jessica, more of the good old days; Kelly, all the food "George" can eat; Darren, Angie; Josh, a girl like me to bug you for the rest of your life; Mr. Rexrode, more students like me; Mr. Perfect, a life full of happiness and the one thing you want the most; Lisa, more parties; Jason, more camping trips; everyone else, Good luck!

James Vandevender

To: Danny, a new Ford truck; Mark, a better taste in vehicles; Scott Morgan, my good grades; Bill and Traci, good luck in the future; Mr. T., another student like me; Chris, a Redskin shirt; Philip, my seat on the bus; Doug, a date with Judy; Lori, revenge and a Redskin shirt; Danny, a bar of Ivory; Shawn, a date with Amy; Chris, a gun without bullets; Mr. Bland, someone else to cut their thumb on the band saw; Pat, a woman so he will leave Danny's alone; Sean, a tooth, the ability to keep his knife in his pocket; Good Luck to the class of '93.

David Johnson

To: My best friend Aaron, I leave my truck and guns; Melissa, my happiness; Carrie, my friendship; Tammy, my love; Herb, all the two by fours in the world; Eddie, all the women in the world; my family, all of my memories; Doug J., my motorcycle; Debbie, all of my good luck; Bush, my pool stick; Kathy, all of my candy; Vickie, all of my music tapes; Doug C., my stereo and good luck with Amanda G.; Ronnie, all of the comedy; Bobby, all of my knives.

Holly Ryder

To: All my family, I love all of you; Amanda, Chris, another summer at the park and a movie; Mark, Randy, a real team; Doug, another night like the 25th; Scarlett, a run to town; Cindy, a great guy; Steven, friendship and love; Scott, the ability to keep talking; Kim, Steven; Mary, a little girl; Stephina, Felinda, Treana, Alice, good luck; Chris, ability to do WP; Tina, happiness; Cheerleaders, a better year; To the class of 1993, best of luck; George, Rosemary, Mathew, Sherie, I love you; and last to Brian, I leave FOREVER!

Robert Doyle

To: Darren, many more nights on main street watching cars go by and deep thoughts; Mr. Burns, an omen and another team as good as us; Randy, the ultimate party and a new milk crate; Mr. Bland, another another student just like me; Andy, a good future in agriculture; Puff, my mix tape, a real football team and a gallon of purple paint remover; Jerry, skis anytime you want; Sharpie, a good game of eight ball; Snipey, a good dog; Chris, a cowboy; 77, good luck the next two years; my family, thanks for helping me out.

Kim Dean

To: Carrie, all of the red Kool-aid you need, a maid to pick out your clothes for you, happiness with Brian, and my freindship forever; Toni, my words of advice, although you never listen to them, a long and happy life with Brian, and my friendship forever; Sarah, a cushion so you don't get carpet burns, a happy life with Robbi and my friendship; Angie, a dog sweater of your own; Andy, a happy life and my friendship; Angel, a magnifying glass so you can get a better look at things; Mom and Dad, happiness for the rest of your life.

Matt Buzzard

To: Zig, the ability to do electricity like me; Kelly, a wish to come true for a change; Bosley, a descent girl that's smart enough to tie her shoes; Mickle, some Blue Star Ointment; Mr. Burns, a body cast; Ray H., a healthy baby buffalo; Wally, some sun to bask in; Tina, the ability to be as good as she thinks she is, and the idea that somebody would fight over her; Brian K., money for a hair cut; Mrs. O'Bryan, a Crayola crayon 64 set; Snipe, 10 days out of school to know what it feels like.

Traci Douglas

To: Carrie, gum and a burger and fries; Martha, a Hershey bar and a house; Lauri, my trash can and a cowboy; Jayme, broad shoulders and a new friend just like me; Melanie, my friendship forever and a car; Danny, a kiss and a Hershey Kiss; Mark, happiness forever; Donald, a memory of the way we used to be; Mom and Dad, all my love and thank you for believing in me, I couldn't have done it without you; Billy, a Ford truck and all my love for the rest of my life, I love you; Seniors of '93, We Made It!

Doug Lantz

To: the seniors, lots of memories; Brian, a good woman to go out with; Scott, a few fouts; Darren, my height; Jimmy, a date with Amanda across the mountain; Mark, a Mountain Dew; Danny and Chris, a bus trip with Amy; Jayson, a good looking woman; Mary Ann, someone to talk to; Shawn Bosley, a girl from Tygart's Valley; Amanda, a basketball trip; Holly, alot of kisses; Randy and Bev, a room at Morgantown; Kristy, luck; Scarlett, a few hugs; Judy, a Jukebox; Mr. Stewart, some news; Joan and Woody, love; Angela, a life history story; Rebecca, lots of love from someone.

Danny Kimble

To: Chris M., good luck in the future with the women; Jimmy V., better taste in vehicles; Buzz, better luck in the future with your knife; Odie, another chance with Judy; Mark K., better luck with your friend, Travis S.; Chris B., another hunter saftey course; Bosely, another hug with Amanda and Brad; Joe L., the ability to turn off park lights; McComb, raincoat; Traci D., a date with a real man; Billy V., Dodge; Pat M., a woman; Mr. T., another trip across Cheat; Mrs. Leary, another student like me; Amy A., good luck with Rocky; Soapy, bar of soap; Philip P., my good grades; Sean M., a tooth; Watson, blocking buddy; Melanie, me.

Darren Galford

To: Mr. Burns, another trip to Kansas City; Robert, a tape with nothing but S & L; Angie, another chance to drive my car and finish our bet; Cindy, another trip to the doctor's office; Puff a chance to cruise town one more time; Randy, those ten games of B-ball you need; Sharpie, a chance to wear Bob's shoes again; Christina, that hunk you want, wherever his is; Garber, the dunk I never saw; Reigel, your girlfriend; Snipey, good times to come at Glenville; Jerry, someone to teach you how to drive; Scott Sharp, the Luke tape I never got to borrow.

Steven Holmes

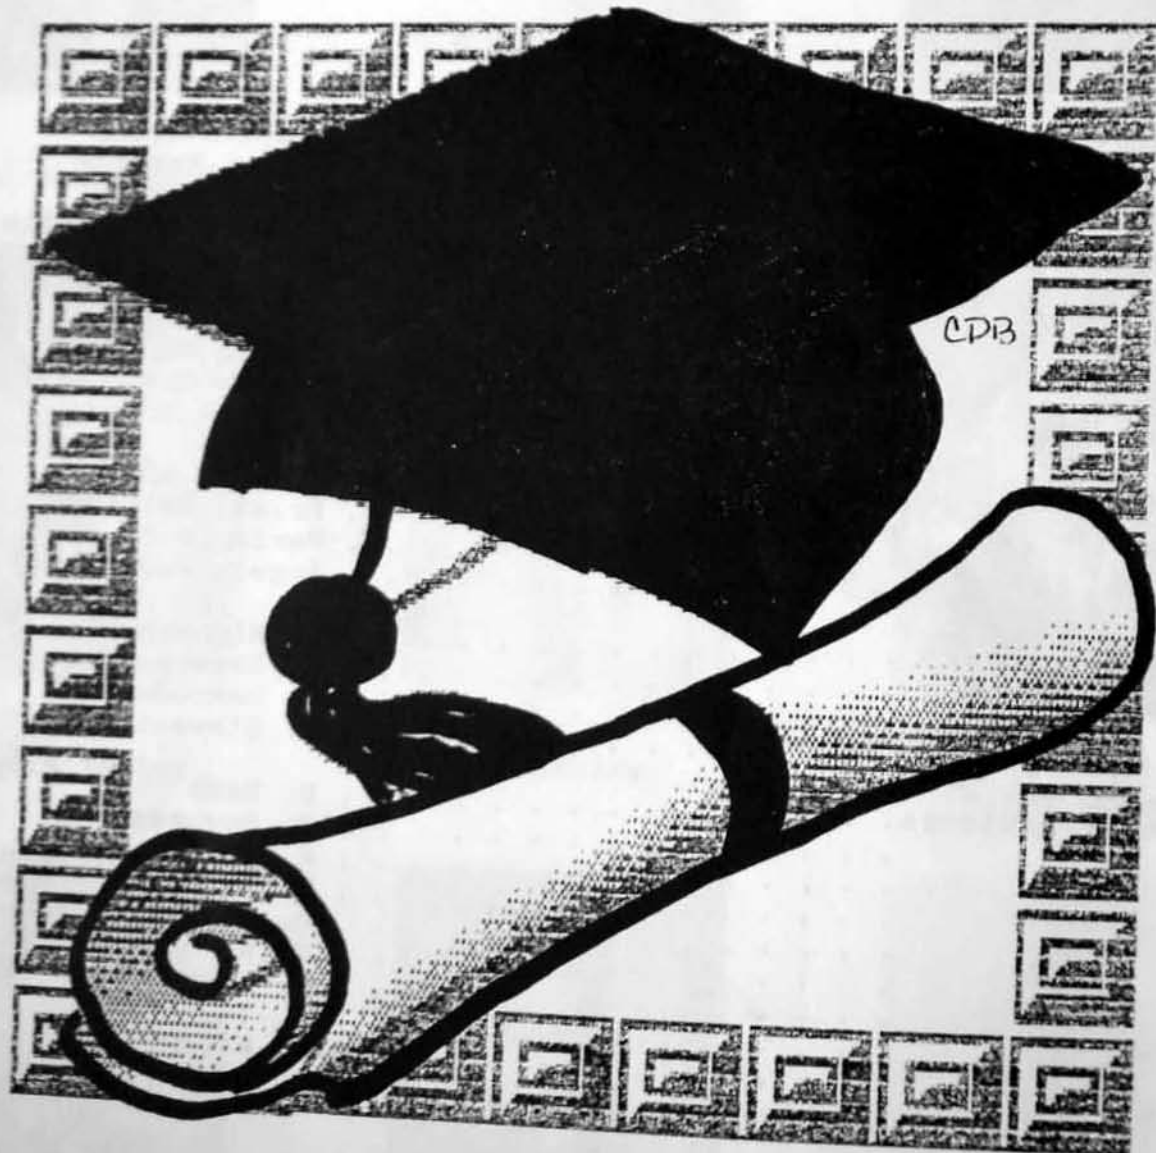

To: Puff, a woman; Brien, a job that you don't have to do anything; Jason, 5 more minutes to get to class; Kenney, happiness with you exp; Jason, a job at Fas Check; Gene, can of Vienna Weinies; Pam, a ride out Watoga; Eva, a muzzle; Mr. Hall, an extra supply of steroids; Debbie, a bird and a lifetime full of happiness with me, thanks for everything you have done for me and being there for me and I hope everything works out for us the way we want it to. Thank you for being a part of my life.

Jodi Gragg

To: Jennifer, more weekends and fun, lots of Dr. Pepper, a good looking someone special B.F.F.; Christina, a date with M, more activity nights; Lisa, better brown nosing skills; Carrie, a great future with Brian; Robin and Bev, happiness with Keith and Tony; Brian S., someone else to pick on, an appointment book; Brian K., someone else to sit with on the bus; Mr. Alderman's fifth period class, another aide like me, I'll miss you guys; Joey, an angel to wish you a new truck and a new job; Mom and Dad, thanks for everything, you're the best; anyone I missed, "good luck".

L Stewart

CLASS OF

1994

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Typist Cynthia Broce
 Kristi Matheny
 Marion McKean
 Jessica McLaughlin
 Michelle Smith
 Angela Waybright

Art Work Makala Gum
 Philip Chenoweth
 Cynthia Broce

Layout and Cynthia Broce
 Cutting Kristi Matheny
 Marion McKean
 Angela Waybright

Special Thanks R. Blankenship
 L. Beverage
 N. Rexrode
 L. Stewart

Senior Advisors. D. Barb
 G. Beverage
 K. Friel
 T. Hall
 D. McNeel
 G. Rexrode
 R. Rose
 D. Tupper
 K. Wiley

Mel Anderson

Amy Arbogast

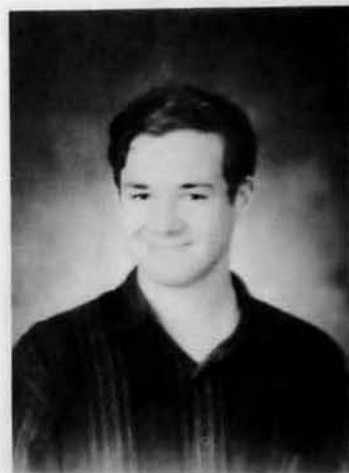

Larry Armstrong

Travis Bailey

Amy Barkley

Jeremy Bauserman

Dana Blankenship

Donald Bolden

Mindy Bond

Cynthia Broce

Mandy Burks

Joanna Burt-Kinderman

Brad Carpenter

Brandy Carpenter

Phillip Chenoweth

Cassie Childers

Katy Clark

Adam Dale

Kim Farmer

Mandy Fitzgerald

Eddie Friel

Cindy Gainer

Scott Garber

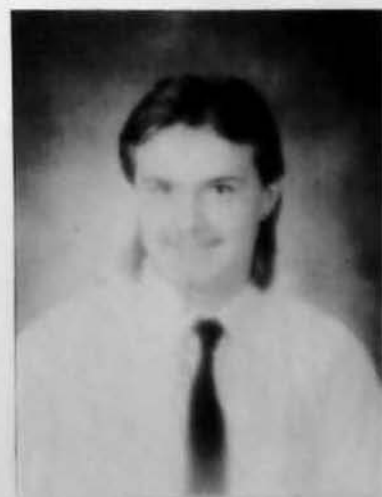

Sean Gares

Katy Gay

Bryan Gragg

Andy Grimes

Shana Groseclose

Makala Gum

Dawn Hafler

Terri Harper

Laura Hefner

Kurt Heinemann

Ray Hendrick

Kevin Hickman

Bobby Holbert

Christopher Irvine

Billy Jack

Jesse Johnson

Raymond Jones

John Michael Kane

Brian Kelley

Aaron Kershner

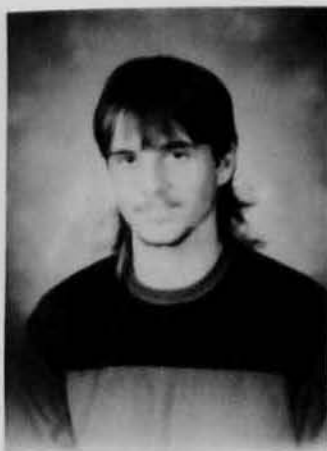

Clark Kinnison

Dwight Kinnison

Leslie Lambert

Paul Lane

Jason Long

Charles Mallow

Penny Mallow

Lisa Mallow Grimes

Kristi Matheny

Pat Matheny

Robert McCutcheon

Martin McGreal

Marion McKean

Jessica McLaughlin

Chris McNeel

Sean Mickle

Ry Mitchem

Jennifer Moore

Sharon Moore

Larry Morgan

הַיְיִדִּים הַיְיִדִּים

הַיְיִדִּים הַיְיִדִּים

Pmc

AMN

Kudos

Danielle Brown

April Nelson

Sara Lagace

Wendy Kirk

Jason Sharp

Sarita Delp

Tom Stewart

Michele Stewart

Bethany Clutter

Rosalie Morris

Roselyn S Leary

Don't get the wrong idea, this is NOT a hit-list, these are the people that assisted in the creation of this lovely book.

Mr. Sheets

Ms. Poole

Ms. Hall

Mr. Ziegler

Mrs. Howell

Mr. Hall (boy)

Ms. Blankenship

Mrs. Brown

Mrs. Leary

No, you've still got the wrong idea. This isn't a hit-list either, it's only our senior advisors.

Cover by: April Nelson

William Eilers

Ashley R. Jolly

Amy

Chris L. Stelle

Kelly

Christopher Harlan Gibson

Jon' M. Ervine

Janelli F. Gilmore

Jayme

Jason P. Sharp

Stephanie H. Muller

Herb

Amy Nicely

Beth Aubogast

Amy

Mary Kate

Michael McCarty

Robin

Wayne Ryder

Christina Adkinson

Shenda J. Smith

Shannon Owen

Shenda J. Smith

Regina E. Lambert

Oak Hall

Marcy Walker

Beverly Grogg

Laura L. Wagner

Travis Warner

Sharon

Beth Warden

LeAnna Alderman

Brian M. Hill

Donna Watson

Matthew Nelson

William

Sarita Delf

Sara Lagace

Wendy

Amanda

April Nelson

Nancy H. Thullen

Danielle Brown

Bethany A. Clutter

Rosche Woods

Sean McGreal

Jason Ray

Eric Furr

Sonia Ryder

Travis Loudermilk

Eric Mynatt

Chris Bore

Rachel Shets

Jason T. Sumalerey

Chuck Smith

Andrea

Anthony

Randy Hall

Martha L. McCombs

Pamela Peter

Mary Ann

Natalie Mickel

Josh Dille

Della M. Cassell

Cynthia Cochran

John Duncan

Doug Cassell

Travis Shane Dean

Laura Dyar

Carrie

Ricky

Daniel Gladwell

Jennifer J. McLaughlin

Franklin Lee Burgess

Curtis

Brad Miller

Ruthana McNeel

Travis

Kaelie

Jonathan Hicks

Andy Bunnage

Jason Robinson

Chris Taylor

Dawn

Ward R. Dewart

Beebe

Ludia Simmons

Amy Smith

Hana Simmons

Sarah Wade

Tom Stewart

Kristy Terry

Randy Williams

Travis Taylor

Sharon L.

Nike Wilfong

Steve Green

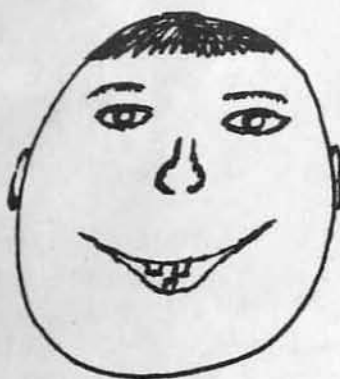

Jana D. Pascock

Melissa D. Evans

Joe L. Shickling

Jamie Lee Wilfong

Ronald Wilfong

Andrew P. Adlerman

Andrew Pritt

Senior Wills

Ruthanna McNeel

To: Danny, another body to carry off the lawn; Johnny, the ability to put cars in reverse; Mandy, "smooth maneuvers"; Lora, her own love mobile; Tom, reign of Rubberland; Seth, an inflatable date; Laura, bus talks, "medication"; Jake $2000 for those black jeans; Chris G., a hug; Josh D., a warhoop and a party; Willi and Jud, a sticker to add to the "hippie mobile"; Marce, Frazier Street, Chinese fire drills, "secret" places, Taylor trips, best good buddies; Ben, Section one, paragraph three, clause four; Jamie, jungle juice and a night in town; Mom, a life of pure happiness, thanks for everything!

Martha L. McComb

To: Sharon Morgan, a little white house and turtles; Becki McCarty, a date with Frank Erickson; Sarita Delp, missiles; Tom Stewart, a spot on American Bandstand doing the "TD"; Laura Wagner, another missing magazine; Natalie Mickle, a staring admirer; Kristi Terry, more games of volleyball; Scharlie McComb, napkins and bibs for messy lunches; Elissa Corbett, an appearance on "The Price is Right"; Jessica Beverage, another HIGH FIVE; Brandy Cassell, splurging tongues; David Young, roastbeef sandwich; Katrina Richards, raw pork chops; Beth Henry, "moooo"; Ginger Beverage, fresha peppa; Family and Friends, thanks for everything, my thoughts are with you always.

Curtis Browning

To: Jody, a 4-Wheel Drive; B.J., another weekend at the Mud-Bogs; Randy, a new side for his dad's Ranger; Buzz, another easu year in Zig's; Mr. Beverage, another Chapter Business Team like us; Zig, a new rubber chicken; Jason Sharp, his own personal chip machine; Jason Shinaberry, a box of Texas Cinnamon Rolls; Brian Hill, a blow-up doll; Vicki, everything in the world but my truck because I want it buried with me.

Jason Todd Shinaberry

To: Chuck, more times of being wolfed; Andrew, a rubber hammer and an anvil to try and tear up; Jody, all the wood he can cut; Big red, a beard and hair on the arms; Chris Rose, a set of tires; Danny and Chuck, no more Jennifers; Josh Dilly, a blond haired goddess; Jake and Dilly, their own women; Jason and Amy, a happy life; R.W. and C.B., two new sides for their pickups; to Tammy Barlow, I leave my love and devotion forever and always; to everyone else, I say fair well.

Jason Robinson

To: Andy, things like they used to be in the big brown car and a new rag for your table; Matt, the girl of your dreams; Corey, a girl with a heart and not 2 faced; Frankie, fishing trip; the bus, to sing and not get in trouble; Ashley, a bigger truck; Mikey, a chance with one of your 2 one and onlys; Dean, more B.S. lines; Scott, another graduation party; Brandy and Autumn, a date sometime; Myself, a good job; Jason, more thoughts in Electronics; Chad K., another night with Crystal; Jessie, me and many blinking lights; Joann, new car.

Nancy Jo Mullens

To: Partiers, more parties; hypocrits, better sermons; prejudiced people, acceptance of others; Hallboy, reality check; Mike, fender strut; Carol, freedom; Chuck, Iron Butterfly; Sharon, Sarah, Becky, Susan, men; Rob, Yvonne, friendship; Andy B., hacks; Bobby, Thad, snowballs; Leata, Sherry, hiding; Billy, glasses; Brian, ludwigs; Della, scholarship; Jimmy, smaller bass; Dane, Jeremy, Bass glue; Scotty, food; Mandy, green babies; Bethany, revenge; Michelle, sillystrip; Danielle, pasivism; April, toilet trees; Bridget, education; Dirt, Eddie, Band; Dave, hugs; Rosey, old men; Sonia, no brats; Allen, remembrance; Kory, my writings and love; Pap, Mom, Deb, Dan, Burt, my thanks and love; everyone, love, peace, and happiness.

Jason L. Shinaberry

To: Isreal Davis, I leave all my knowledge taht I have tried to teach you; Aaron Davis, I leave my knowledge of how not to get caught, Mike, I leave my locker; Mike, I leave my music; Anita, my ability to have the perfect relationship; Billy, I leave some pencils; Stacey, I leave you great memories and fun rides, don't forget to let the grass grow as green as your name; Stacey, I leave you a whip; Karen, I leave some good common sense and a good book how to win a fight; Susan, I leave you Chad forever.

Steve L. Queen

To: Pam, a happy and peaceful life with Scott; Travis, a good car that won't break down and my friendship and a dog named Sparky; Carrie, a happy relationship wih Travis; Wayne, a hat that's not wore out; Mrs. B., all of my thanks for helping me get through school and two more boys like me and Wayne; Kathy, my friendship and someone that will trear her right; Johnny, a job that he likes and a woman that will treat him right; Mom and Dad, all my love and thanks.

Andrew P. Alderman

To: Mr. Vance, a good looking tie; to the rest of the teachers, great memories of this year; to Brian H., a blow-up doll; Ashley, an extra large muzzle; to Jamie, another year's worth of weekends; Mike, all the luck with women; Pancake, a skinny woman; Warner, a little more brains than muscle; Marcy and Ruby, lots of good times with their sister; Karen, the ability to stay off the ground and lots of luck with your baby; Brad and Debbie, lots of luck and a happy life; whoever wanted mention, whatever they wanted to hear.

Sarita Delp

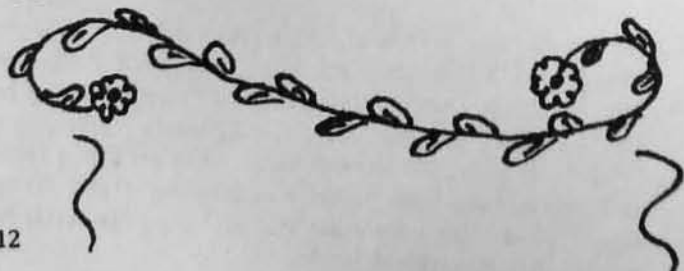

To: Wendy, Sara, high lives with composer and lots of sillystring; Spencer, a body band-aid and a lifetime supply of painkillers; Willie, hair; Michelle, more pizza eating contests; April, pink hair dye and Bob; Bethany, more sandy strudel; Becki, more nights with the window open; Elissa, more laughs; Eric, more FTW's in anatomy; Kenny, a tongue in your ear; Aron, more pictures; Isreal, more trips to Birdrun with Apple B; Scotty, a really big phone book and more Snowshoe trips; Mr. Wade, nightmares about drumsticks; Hall Boy, a gradebook safe; Mrs. Leary, more time to counsel me; everyone else, a PARTY!

Randy Wilfong

To: Gilligan, I leave the money for his surgery; Josh, a good woman; Chris G., a lift for his truck; Jody, luck with Sharon; Jason T., a razor; Chris R., more trips to the highway; Andrew, something he can't tear up; Chuck, more women; Mark, a 4 X 4 so you can make it all the way to the Kelly Field; Robert, more trips to the pond; Curtis, a job with Tom's Snacks and a big car to haul Vicky and the kids around; Jason Sharp, a Ford; Mom and Dad, a son that acts like he has some sense; Jessica, a new car.

Forrest Heinle

To: Sara, less accuracy with a rope; Eric, an unlimited budget for speeding tickets; Mr. Hall, a tuned piano; Susan, unbreakable fingernails; Oak, a mountain all his own; David, a new mind that will actually be used instead of vegetated; Mr. Ziegler, soccer players that are better than I am; Hanna, an unlimited supply of food to throw; Elizabeth, a dagger to go with her cloak; Mrs. Burns, may you never have a Chemistry student better than I; my invisible friend, may he never be seen.

Chris Rose

To: John, more times cutting wood and getting hung up; Danny, more hill climbs with old brown and a S-10 that will go through the nudbog; Jason Sharp, another 360 to work on all night; Andrew, more things to tear up and a new truck; Gina, all the quarters in the world so you can wash your car every day; Kenney, more turkey sandwiches; Big Red, a woman that will stay with you; Mr. Thompson another Jim Campbell to yell at; Corey, more nights camping on the highway and all my love to you and the baby.

Travis Shane Dean

To: Jason Sharp, I leave more nights on the river with Jim, Little G, slowpoke, and me; to Frankie, many more nights over the hill in Jerico; Matthew and Phillip, more days over in the pine trees; Amy Smith, a happy life with Jason; Brad and Debbie, a new car and a happy life together; Mr. Tupper, another student like me for you to talk about; Josh, a real woman; Jake, many more nights partying with me and Steven; Corey Alkire, a blue Escort and an icehouse; Hardrock, dance lessons; last I leave Amanda all my love forever; C-ya.

Mary Ann Carter

To: I Mary Ann do will the following; Doug, pair of scissors, another foot to tape; K.K., my basketball uniform; J.W., Chinese blue balls; Johnnie Boggs, hobbie horse in Missouri; MKP, a squirrel in Drs. Ed.; Girls Basketball, best of luck; all band students, one more time; Jonathan, another test drive in a Dodge Ram; Mr. Wade, someone else to yell at for running the halls; B.H., a blow-up doll, tape; Mr. Hall, are you stupin or what; Mom, thanks for everything, lots of love; last but not least, Matthew, my everlasting love, I love you forever!

Jody Alderman

To: Ashley, a bottle of Pepto; Curtis, a new Chevy, fully equipped; Dean, a new fender; Andy, a blackberry bush; Hardrack, a good time; Jason Sharp, 4 new tires; Danny, a quart of Penzoil; Chris Rose, a rear end; Chuck, a hay bale; Shinaberry, a pair of boots; Beth, an Indian headband; Paul, a dog house; Brad, a self-propelled grocery cart; Sharon, a lollipop, pack of gum, a basket full of Jolly Ranchers, a bottle of Tylenol, and a personal doctor; Debbie, a life with Brad; Nelson, a greenhouse; Brian Hill, a blow-up doll; Fare Well.

B. J. Haden

To: Curtis, my Nintendo; Vicki, my holly socks; Mrs. Stewart, a hard time; Mr. Sheets, my shoes; Natalie, a dish cloth; Cafeteria, bag of ice; Morgan, a pair of rubber keys; Mary Kate, a bag of candy; Hill, a roll of duct tape; Taylor, an air freshener; Jody, a can of water; Zig, a high 5.

Janelle C. F. Gilmore

To: Billy, my love and our life together; Mom and Dad, thank you for the love and support; Grandma and Grandpa, more love everyday; Grandma, thank you for your help with my decisions and your support with what I decide; Jason and Jamie, memories of childhood; Amy, tunnels, one second p, more fun to come; Ashley, find your true love; Natalie, 30 days to miss school without making them up; Christina, Amy, Ashley, Becki, Crissy, Amanda, Travis, Andy, Jason, Jimmy, Brad, more great parties and to take care of each other; To all my friends, good luck and remember me always.

Kelly Shevon Landis

To: Beth, more dirty looks in the hallways, and friendship forever; Deb, happiness with Brad, life supply of natural popcorn, my license, and friendship always; Ashley, the gossip column in the Pocahontas Times; Sharon, a triple wedding on the cruise of her dream, friendship forever; Jayme, a mansion on the hill with her own daycare and accounting firm; Mom and Dad, thanks for all of your love and support, Love you both; Brooksie, a happy marriage forever, my love always, our cruise to the Bahamas, and a life filled with happiness.

Debra Renee Beverage

To: Andy, thin piece of ice; Shannon, green cookies, Christmas tree, Paul; Kelly, Brooksie, wrecked Subaru, shhh; Sharon, Barbarian restaurant, large rats; Eva, blood; Jayme, healthy baby; Beth, toilet paper, Edray Kwik Stop; Amy, dance lessons; All my friends, thanks for everything, you are the best; Mom and Dad, thanks for your love and support; Brian Hill, Blow-up Doll; Curtis, popcorn; Jessica, band trips, Jason; Mrs. Rhea, another intelligent student like me; I saved the best for last, Brad, a life of love and happiness with me, you're one of a kind, I love you--forever and always.

Shannon Owen

To: Marcy, someone to always drive you car up to Snowshoe and more hats to hang up; Willi, more Chemistry lab equipment; Jud, more sticky fingers and scissors from the attic; Aaron, an answer key to the written test for your drivers license; Amy Groseclose, a detailed map of Charleston; Shawn, more fax sheets to take to my teachers; Sean, a break from whinny kids in ski school; Robin, good luck and a happy future; All of my teachers of my senior year, all the goal sheets and biweekly evaluations you could ever read.

Joni Ervine

To: Mr. Hall, I leave half of the PCHS football team for the bass section of the choir; to Sara Peacock, I leave a bottle of grape juice and an umbrella; to Missy, I leave a new set of sinuses and an allergy-free season; to Shenda, classmates who won't try to kill her.

Rosalie Morris

To: Jo Mullens, custom Harley; Kory, a Harley; Amanda, Herman notebook spiral; Danielle, stone and paint; Michelle, everything you want; Bethany, groovy guys; April and Josh, smoochies; Shenda, peace; Kristy Terry, goodies; Sara Peacock, more quirks; Jason Williams, stuff; Tommy Turner, luck; Richard Underwood, luck; everyone that's been good to me (can't name 'em all), bless to; to the good part of my family, thank you for standing by me, I love you; to everyone, I leave my slow talkin' warped sense of humor and peanut butter-n-banana sandwiches and root beer, y'all be good, y'all take care.

Cynthia Cochran

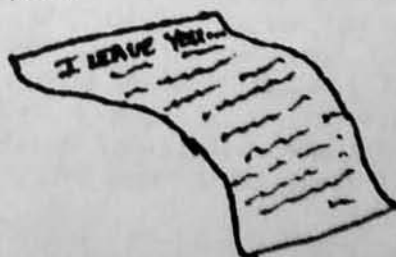

To: Katie, my friendship forever; Corey, all the good times at Dairy Queen; Beth W., Kelly, Debbie, Janelle, my freindship; Mrs. Stewart, another aide like me; Regina, Beth A., Jennifer, 6th period; Mrs. Stewart, a new desk; Marlena, more hallways to walk in; and finally Jeff Miller, all my love and a long lasting marriage with you that will last an eternity.

Glenda Teter

To: Natalie, a blank gift certificate from Catos and a truck full of Pepsi; Tinabug (weiner) a date with Jeff Gordon and a huge chocolate cake; Pam, Darin, and a new car to follow him around; Robin, some money to buy candy and Mark; Bev, Tony and your own house; Beth, my friendship and life as a beachbum; Amy, a party and the field beside Hanover; Mom, Jamie, and Chrissy, I love you all; Dad, a job close to home; Jay McCoy, I leave you my and all my love and a case, I love you very very much sweetie!

John B. Duncan

To: Chris, all the Dodge parts you can dream of; Gina, all my love in the world; Danny, a set of ear plugs and a real truck; Andrew, an anvil and a rubber hammer; Corey, a chance to drive Chris's truck; Kenney, another cold day in Sam's class; Mr. Thompson, some great students like the ones in Welding II; Pancake, more lessons on learning how to ear tag calves; Big Red, all the Lot Lizzards in the world; Jason S., the manager spot at central service station; Mr. Ziegler, another home room like yours.

Sara Peacock

To: Missy, wrestling matches and prybar for ribs; LeAnna, WASHINGTON MONUMENT BIRTHDAY CANDLE CEREMONY; Cindy, stranger hellos and orange juice puddles; Joni, submachine juice gun; Shenda, "wonder" wear; Rosalie, chocolate valentines; Sonia, Mt. Everest platform shoes; Rachel, the joys of life; Forrest, new hair and plenty of rope; Josh, youth and Euphoria; Morgan, the perfect saddle and the skill of floating; Willi, HUMOR; Mandy B., my inimitable style; Liz, life and other everywhere sports; Kathleen, fry meindship; Dane, hugs galore; Mr. B., many thanx; Mr. Z., another troublesome twosome; and to the forgotten ones, a yummy brownie.

Rachel Sheets

To: Everyone, hope, happiness, and morbid poems; Shenda, time to make merry, a real man, and infinite friendship; Tom, a Taco Bell in Green Bank; Sara, really GOOD friends; Doug, a girls' team as different as our; Sean, hair; Oak, belief in something; Mrfather, a new assistant athletic director; LeAnna, the mountain and my eternal friendship; Willi, true love and nice sexy underwear; Eric, an "A" in English; Jason, my calculus notebook, some baby-sitting experience, lots of U2 tapes, a neighbor other than Oak, a stellar senior year, and all the memories, oh and the mountain legacy...

Shenda Smith

To: Jeremy U., lunch, trenchcoat on his doorstep; Jason R., that lacy thing; Josh B., beautiful garden; Chad F., pet monkey, turkey sandwich; Alison, kamikaze lady bugs, psycho B, gas $; James M., his very own corner of the STAIRWAY; Ariana, burritos, pancakes, guardian angel; Aaron, french tutor, vibratto; Roshawn, rings for every finger; Missy E., peaches, a fish; LeAnna, another leach; Janelle, big basement, Reese's Pieces candies; Sean M., a Barbie, sunblock; Rosalie, well-endowed Siberian yak (over 40); Sara P., home alone; Rachel, "dream for all mankind"; Danielle, automatic release emergency brake; Willi E., a HUNDRED YEARS of bus rides, backrubs, my valuables; Mr. Hall, smelly goat; Mrs. Vance, knife, new hippie gopher.

Kristy Terry

To: Natalie, $50.00 and the 49er's; Laura, long conversations, yearbooks and music; Sharon M., a turtle poster, a finished copy, and 2nd lunch shift; Mary Kate and Martha, volleyball games; Amy and Andi, "The Western Destroyers"; Sarah, a new name (Elizabeth); Steph, a picture; Tina, Jeff Gordon; Rosalie, an old man; Amy G., hours on the phone and mercury free peanut brittle; Sonia, the color green; Robin, mornings in the gym; Sarita, "those looks".

Sarah Wade

To: Lauri, Great American Food Robbers, another trip to Lewisburg, spinach dip, and my friendship forever; Stephanie, 202 surprise package, adventures, the strength to say "NO MORE JEEP RIDES", and my friendship forever; Sonia, a comforter bowl, 40 cents, a lifetime of happiness with Jerry, and my freindship forever; Amanda and Chrissy, another trip to Virginia and two cowboys; Kristy, Kristi; Philip, luck at PCHS; Mom and Dad, lots of love and thanks for everything you've done for me; Chris, a car phone, unlimited free L.D.'s, your dream truck, the patience to write a letter, happiness, and all my love forever!

Robin Renee Hamilton

To: Chasten, the universe in your hands, all Mommy's love; Stephen, my heart, my spirit, so behave yourself, I'm watching, "I Love You always"; Family, memories and happiness, love you all; Beck-o, Randy, our bathroom hours, and our friendship; Amy G., another summer, JAC, fairs, fresca, babysitting, friends forever; Andi, my cousin; Amy N., a trip; Amy S., Buffalo, "my shirt", to get our friends; Sharon, Brian, STOP; Adam, Mellow Yellow bottle; Tommy, Becki's party; Karen, single man; Natalie, gas pills, Kristy, antother morning oot criticize; Beth, Vo-Ag; Janelle, KFC; Laura, plastic cups; Chad, dreams; Kelly, luck; Debbie, gossip hour, remeber me always!

Stephanie Lynne Mullenax

To: Sarah, surprise packages at 202, Durbin adventures, parties at Jerdina's and my friendship always, Love ya Hocus!; Sam "Got any ones?", a weiner whistle roadsigns, a new football team, and my friendship always; Sonia, kids like my, another freshman year, and my friendship forever; Della, summer of 90, hot fries, guys and my friendship always; Kristy and Natalie, a picture; Tom, mud puddles and a wedding; Beth, Prom night, tootsie rolls; Regina, bus rides and neighbors; William, my friendship always; Donnie, horse back riding and jeep rides, then again maybe not!; Jerdina a truck; my family, thanks for everything, I love you!

Regina Lambert

To: Mrs. Keller, Big Johnson T-shirt; Mr. Shank, another class like third; Mrs. Stu, another student like me; Jenn and Cynthia, first period; Beth S., Lorey B., Joy P., thanks for the talks; Steph, M.M., thanks for everything; Liddy B., Dege B., Joy P., Anita A., the talks about M and L; Beth A., fun times riding around and Snoop; Doug C., my long hair and hair; Eva, a new nickname for me; Chris M., answers; Mrs. B., thanks for everything; My parents, my love and thanks for making these the best 19 years of my life; Everyone I forgot, good luck, friendship and love to everyone, c/o '95 rules forever.

Mary Kate Pennington

To: MAC, a clean pillowcase; Sharon, that rainy night, the ability to understand men, broken broomhandles; B.J., salt; Jody, my shampoo; Sam, french fries and egg rolls; David, driving lessons; Robin, erosion gearshifts, and that awful smell; Amy and Andi, something refreshing, burning mirrors, effects of pizza, pooch patrol, KC-CL, friendship forever; "Stinky", Rocky, Hugo, skid mark cleaner, thread runs, MS-CT-BD, righteous things, more Ho-Ho searches, 9946, Alfred's used cars, groundhog dronings; Becki, Mexican dips; Jamie, privileges of an only child; Beth, all the laughs you've given me; Travis, another 26 miles, my trust, more patience, lotsa hugs and kisses.

LeAnna Alderman

To: Missy, homemade thumb bandages, meatball subs, many more years of friendship; Shenda, her own candlelit coffee shop; Sonia, rabbit food; Sara, the right to wear bell-bottoms anywhere she pleases; Joni, many cups of fruit juice; Rachel, yurts, freak road trips, word association; Jason R., binder, un fleuve, mountain legacy; Lindell, Knight Rider, pre-wrapped bacon; Science Bowl Team, skee-ball machine each, 80's music, arcade tickets; Mrs. Burns, PICO; Mr. Hall, Roxanne; Tom, the future of Taco Bell; Scholars '94, Viking chess; Dr. McNeel, props for Bethany; ESSH class and Mrs. Vance, Billy Bud; Dad, a new DJ; Mom, instruction manual for the TV.

Melissa Evans

To: LeAnna, faith, happiness, stationery on which to write me, and my friendship forever; Sara, a car that never needs fixing, a cat that sleeps all night, and my undying friendship; Sonia, loger legs, a happy life with Jerry, a European Tour for us, and my friendship; Joni, less homework, bigger backpack, and my support; Zig, a raise, a maid, a secretary, and a dog that won't bite your car; Mr. Beverage, a National gold medal, and a happy future; Mom, Dad, John, my love always; Martha, a new saxophone; Curtis, sissy, Bugs, all that you desire out of life.

Brad Miller

To: Paul, I leave a new intake for his Bronco; Dean, another buddy to party with; Nelson, a pair of wading boots; Ashley, a muzzle; Parker, a brand new Chevy; Burns, another students like me; Jake, a new skidder; Dilley, a truck load of wood; Brian, a blow-up doll; Rose, another Ford; Andrew, a life with Eva; Thanks Mom and Dad for your support; to the most important person in my life, Debbie Beverage, I leave all my love and all the happiness we will share during our life together.

Amy Groseclose

To: Sharon, camping trips, a date with Craig Jackson; Elissa, wax on, wax off, UC elevator alarms; Kristy, mercury cookies; Willi, fixation, more talks, absolut love, and a lifetime of friendship; Robin, another summer, fairs, palm readers, tan pants, Buffalo, late night talks, luck with Stephen and never ending friendship; Chasten, love; Shana, talks, Hoby dorks, the ability to drive like me, love and success; Hardrock, the middle of the road; Shannon, directions to McCorkle, Olympic gold, the Three Musketeers forever; Brad, rope, the zoo, 10 stars, friendship, watching rocking chairs; Jac, a big red bow; Amy N., fat and calories.

Rebecca Alice McCarty

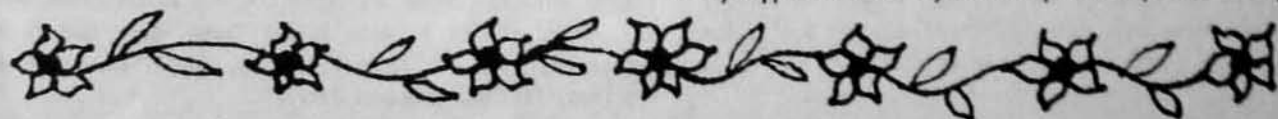

To: randy, happiness forever, all my love; Sharon, great friendship, apartment in Beckley, STOP signs, "Cotton Eye Joe"; Robin, a happy life with Chasten, our friendship; Laura, a new driver; Amy, Andi, "finally" a trip to the beach; Amanda, another chance with that someone from Durbin; Amy, a "refreshing" X-mas present; Martha, two more classes, Hola; Johnnie, duct tape, more lipstick; Chris, talks; Elissa, snow and Chris; Corey, memories of all those "chances"; Chad, my friendship, good luck; Brian, blowup doll; Brad, a happy life with Debbie; Wendy, Sarita, my driveway; Crisco, hotdogs and popcorn; Buckwheat, my nose; Joe, pencils.

Natalie S. Mickle

To: Kristy, 50 cents to buy a bag of chips; Tina (Bug), a new race car driver; Amy, a new transmission; Ashley, a man to settle down with; Steph, more interesting talks; B.J., 1/3 t. salt; Della, a date with Sean; Travis L., a new lie; Jonathan, luck with Laura; Dano, eyebrow glue; Martha, a beehive; Glenda, a happy moment with Jay; Jason Roberts, I leave you all the love I can give you (I love you Sweetie); Sean and Ryan, luck in everything you do! (I love you both); Sean, good luck in the NFL!; Jason H., bobby socks; Mom, love, hope, courage.

Sharon Tackett

To: Dad and Mom, love, thanks, and doctor bills; Mrs. McGee, "unmentionable thanks"; Matt, keys; Aleisha, my two chances--I know you'll need them; Jody, a can of oil and happiness; Kelly, happiness with Brooksie and friendship; Beth, "Skippy" and the man of your dreams; Mrs. Stewart, a round trip to Orlando; Ashley, a man as great as all my "wanta-be's"; Debbie, luck, happiness, and a Barbarian mustache; Laura, a nut, "like what?", 50 cent roses, handicap entrances, a lasso, happiness with Jayme, and friendship forever; Doug, my heart, love, happiness forever, and a way to always work things out.

To: Sean, cereal; Wille, a nice girl you can get it right with; Mr./Mrs. Vance, another basket case; Danny, another night "spinning" in the bathroom with me; Amy, dinner, chocolate, pop-corn, friendship; Mandy, Summer '93; Laura, roll of mint paper; Thomas, 5th period, cuspy dreams, a standard, gum, friendship; Itsirk, bottle of strawberries, a cowboy, chit-chats, friends forever; Jamie, new 4-wheeler, luck always; Mom/Dad, a million thanks, love you guys; Shannon, sticky situations, all night talks, 6th period gossip, friendship always; Rubes, bathroom conversations, double dates, Pizza Hut memories, my best good friendship; Spence $1000 hair; Goobs, Snickers, many nips; Duddie, "true happiness", 10 page letters, soccer memories, talks under the stars, a kiss, my most special friendship and three words.

Jennifer McLaughlin

To: Veronica, my friendship and the times we have had; Regina and Cynthia, 1st and 6th period; Beth A., 6th and 7th and my friendship; Amy Jo, my lasting friendship, more fun times together; Marlene, all the times we have had in Band class; Teresa P., all the guys in her dreams and luck always; Tamsyn, my friendship and 2nd and 3rd period; Lorey B., my friendship; Selena H. and Pam M., all the good times we had in 5th and my friendship; Mrs. B., another student like me; Melissa M., all the good memories; Carrie A., luck with what you do; April P., S.F. and my friendship.

Sara Lagace

To: Wendy, I leave a notebook full of paper; Sarita, more bathroom time; Sean, a half a pack; Jonathan, a hat cleaner; April, plaid tennies; Michelle, a bottle of Rose; Chad, a kiss on the cheek; Josh, mashed potatoes; Willi, hair; Judd, a morning hello; Spencer, five bucks; my Journalism class, some pictures; Mrs. VanReenen, more fun with Travis; Ro-Ro, my yellow tank top; Glenda, more fights with Jay; Oak, a $5.00 ride to Snowshoe; Forrest, a "hoppy" day; Mrs. Leary, trick candles and a hula skirt; Mandy, a surfin' song; Jennifer Underwood, a shower, a pond, and a bed.

Wendy Kirk

To: Sarita, car trips with the dolphin; Sara, a notebook full of paper, Josh, a box of 32; Chad, kisses on the forehead; Michele, April, Bethany, more observatory VWV trips; Dave, don't call me, I'll call you; Kenny, Barbie and blue hair; Scottie, I'd like to order a pizza, man; Becki, more stuff; Spencer and Sean, baggy green PJ's; Aaron, your own personal leaf brusher; Israel, another on the spot phone call; Mandy, purple monkeys every second Tuesday; Bod, a Redskins jacket; Eric Furr, who knows, who cares?; Richard, Eagle's wings; Mom and Dad, pilot's license and my love forever.

Ashley R. Jolly

To: Mom & Dad, love forever; Cris, my room; Beverages, thanks for everything; Rex, clean desk, aide like me; Zig, hairbrush; Amy, snowy weekends, bathrooms, 2 a.m. fries, R & D's, true love, friendship always; Janelle, Billy; Donnie, barfbag, longer busrides, I'm not asleep!; Sharon, luck with your man, friendship; Jayme, healthy baby; Jody, Sharon; Hardrock, unspoken words, small trucks, buttonflies; Josh, Columbia; Campbell, Elissa, friendship always; Ryan, shampoo bottle; Peek-a-Bob, big Hobie!; Johnnie, scar insurance; Ronda, Robusta; Danny, parkersburg; Gina, John; Natlie, gum; Gibson, hugs; C.M.M., closer friendship; Kelly, personal shrink care; Joe, life together, 16 kids, all my love forever!

Jonathan R. Hicks

To: Jason L., another date with 1896; Chad P., a bathroom; Sean M., a front tooth; Ryan M., more Halloween nights in Hillsboro; Jason H., my tailback position; Matt M., a Days Run Campsite; Andy B., more trips to Charlotte; Natalie M., another "soapopera"; Elissa C., someone else's back to mark on; Sharlie M., a new tape; Mr. Tupper, more students like me and Ryan M.; Warrior Football Team, the determination to go all the way; Shelia K., someone else's notebook to look off of; Brian H., some gas; Laura S., I leave you a real team like the Cowboys, and I leave you my love and happiness; Mommy, thank you for the 18 years of happiness.

Laura Simmons

To: Tom, rumors and prep room fantasies; David, facial hair; Ruby, safe drive down Droop Mountain; Marcy, boxing gloves; Mandy, uphill van ride; Lora, toothbrush; Mr. Shank, lunch tray slave; Cheryl, face masks, barking car rides, and sanity; Ginger, carrot juice; Jennifer U., a life like YOU want it; Katrina, "mom" like me; Willi, bluegrass music; Martha, an easy A+ English class; Jason H., Knight Rider videos; Brian, an unexpected kiss; Jessica, another door flying race; Jeremy, a solo; Kristy, an educated thought; Jonathan, a year long surprise, patience, and all my love, to Ben, a hug; Everyone else, lots of luck.

Sonia L. Ryder

To: Sarah, $1000, a new conforter, H2O, and my friendship always; Steph, another freshman year, Candyman, and my friendship always; Lauri, more 1/2 circles in the morning and my friendship always; Kristy, emeralds; Jayme, Myrtle Beach; Missy and LeAnna, Italy; Sara, Euphoria; Jo, ski pole stabbings, friendship always; Sherry, a lifetime supply of MC's; my brother, the biggest bedroom; Mama and Daddy, thank you for believing in me and supporting all my decisions, love ya; Jerry, a hike to Anne Bailey Tower, more summers at Watoga, my love and support forever, you'll always be my Precious, love you!, Hakuna Matata!

Amy Nicely

To: Tara, Durbin Days, the perfect guy; Becki, more fun times; Robin, a happy life; Sharon, all-nighters, whirlpools, friendship; Mary Kate, fresh stuff, tips on how to hang up a phone, shaving cream; Andi, to my best friend I leave window screens, flash, beach bonfires, friendship forever, I'll miss you next year; Mr. and Mrs. Burns, thanks for believing in me; Jonathon, a car ride; Sam and David, my birthday party, shrimp, chicken half price; Jamie, Johnny, Travis, Chris, Gas-X, more fun times without the stink; Rhonda, sense; Corey, help; Amy S., Buffalo; Joey, my heart, my soul, and my life.

Amy Jo Phillips

To: Whitney Good, all the boys of her dreams; Teresa Phillips, my locker; Mrs. Beverage, all my love; Jennifer, hope all her dreams come true and get the right man; Veronica, having another person to listen to her problems and try to stay out of trouble; Kathy, find another person to pick on; Richard, all the times in 5th and 6th period; Lorey, the good times on the bus, in 1st, 2nd period; Carrie, all the times we picked on each other in 5th period; Chuck Sharp, my unconditional love.

Beverly Gragg

To: Mom, all of the love and happiness in the world; Dad and Karen, lots of love and more bedrooms; Amanda, OJ, Andrea, David, Joe, and Ellet, I love all you guys; Dale and Karen, thanks for everything; Mom, Dad, Karen, Dale, and Karen, lots of grandkids; Morgan, another great 7th period class; Josh, a trampoline; Glenda, Jay and my friendship; Robin, Mark and another day at Sharp's Knob; to the teachers at PCHS, I leave you my two sisters and four brothers, BEWARE; to my family, thanks for EVERYTHING; Tony you get ME, I love you very, very much!

Tom Stewart

To: Mandy, Canada in June, gum; David, someone to stare at you during lunch; Lora, video of my dance; LeAnna and Rachel, coupon for free burritos; Scharlie, Martha, Elissa, Brandy, and Jessica, Shake-n-Bake, TD dancing, "a spankin' good time"; Mr. Mylanta, a cheesecake baking neighbor named ROXANNE who smells like a goat; Laura, strength to move on and get over the prep room adventures, sax-appeal; Marce, library gossip, Canadian crushes, friendship; Ruby, a ballet dancer, friendship; Mary Kate, phone calls, pan-fried foods, CFC, Rocky and Hugo, strange voices, vacuum interference, friendship always; Family, love and thanks.

Jamie Wilfong

To: Corey Alkire, I am leaving him to take care of Lori Spencer; to Mike Wilfong, I am leaving a light weight traveler; to Travis Loudermilk, I am leaving Holmar; to Cheryl Weatherholt, best friends with Robin Shearer; to Paul Alderman, buddies with Travis; to Robin, a boyfriend for every day of the year; to Lori, a new set of pouty lips; to Lisa Fyles, two canes to hold her balance; to my brother, a girl friend; to Mike and Matt, another dish full of fruit; to Hard Rock, the right to have two girl friends; to Scott, another fight to break up.

Sharon Morgan

To: Brian, running vehicle stereo equipment, cheesesticks, real football team, lifetime of love; Becki, ear plugs, apartment, adventurous rides; Rachael, Philli penquin; Elissa, Jeeps, cats; Kristy, snails, rabbits; Angela, Mark, little redheads; Carol, rock hupcap; Mike, Daddy Seme's job; Missy, Peachtree toilet paper; Johnnie, duct tape, lipstick; Pam, Tonya, Lewisburg; Nikki, "red hair"; Mirikit, rainy nights, happy music, flowers; Nicely, Circleville laughs; Amy, caving, camping; Andi, happy vacationers; Mikey, women; Frankie, Nathan, bus talks; Chris, nickname; Martha, "Columbia" tissues; Jud, black Jinni; Willi, test tube water; Laura, louder voice; Robin, adventurous rides; Mom, Dad, I love you!; bus, dead queen.

Amanda D. McLaughlin

To: Rosalie, Marty Stuart in a hot tub, and a flourescent green hearse; April, the ability to reach Nirvana; Michele, a Power Ranger's lunch box; Danielle, stone Gossard and a gallon jar of dill pickles; Beth-head, Stuart Smalley's book of affirmations; David, beef stew; Eric, a hug; Arneo, an ax to go with his laugh; Jason, my old walkman, and some chocolate cake; Sarita, the entire Victoria's Secret perfume collection; to all my friends I leave good fortune, and this advice: stay close, eat healthy, brush and floss twice a day, and remember friends don't let friends fight ninja-bots alone.

Danielle Brown

To: Michelle, I leave the White Ranger; Joel, and no more St. Patrick's days; to Bethy, I leave the Man in the Box and an emancipated Karis; for April, I leave the spirit of Kurt Cobain, the perfect hair color, and oil paint remover; to Mandy, I leave a Mister Squishy, Eddie Vedder (divorced), and fake eyelashes in case you burn the rest of your's off; to the above stated and to Billy, Kenny, Furr, Sean, Jay, and both Joshes, I leave future and past memories of our friends Mary Jane, Kurt Cobain, and everlasting life in Olympus for Andrew Wood.

To: Steph, a bag of Hot Fries; Brian Hill, happiness with someone special; Doug, a pair of scissors and a girlfriend; Mary Ann, a happy life with Matt; Chris Cole, a Hi-Five; Mr. Hall, a bell player to replace my; Mrs. Stewart, a new homeroom; PCHS Band Members, a good marching season; Aleisha V., another person to sit with on the bus; To my Family, I leave my love and support; To everyone I may have forgot, Happiness and Good Luck in life!

Bethany Clutter

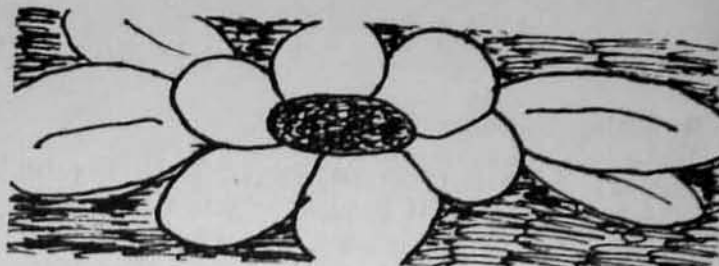

To: Michele, I leave a pplace to keep your cans, a bottle of conditioner and all the Power Rangers action figures; to April a new battery for your car and a pack of twenty; to Danielle, a camera and a roll of film, a jolt soda and a plane ticket to Seattle; to Mandy, I leave a mop and broom to clean up after everyone else and lots of happiness with Michael; Lastly I leave Karis a discipline form, a Green Day tape for your birthday and a spot on any NBA team you want!; to all my friends--love ya!

Travis Arbogast

To: Mom and Dad, all th love and happiness in the world; Carrie, my love and a metallic purple vehicle; Steven, a dog named Sparky and a bag of Rolled Gold Pretzels; David, my friendship forever and a lifetime supply of stereo equipment; Ginnie, all my love and a lifetime supply of rap tapes; Deila, another pain like me for her daughters' boyfriend; Mrs. Stewart, another person like me to keep everything working in her class; Mrs. Keller, another person like me to enjoy her classes so much; Scottie, a nice Nissan thatt wil run and will last him.

Amy Smith

To: Beth, morre trips to Elkins, supply of Peanut Butter, dog; Becki, "Stillwell"; Robin, never forget Buffalo Mtn; Ashley, french fries, my bathroom, two pigs, great parties, remember to flush!; Natalie, Burns parking lot, Droop tower, Chevrolet; Janelle, Durbin, tunnels, luck with Bill; Chrissy, summer of "93", the Jeep Apartment B; Amanda, 16th B-Day, skateboard, guy in the blue truck; Christina, Graduation night, Galen, friendship forever; Amy Nicely, parties, Deb's ttruck (YMCA); Gina, John, Parkersburg, Kooter Head, your life together; Danny, Parkersburg, life with chrissy; Chris Gibson, hugs; Jason, our great times together, all my life, love forever and always.

Laura Ann McCarty

To: Nikki, the best friendship ever, Mr. Right; Kathy, a great friendship, another Morgantown trip; Treanna, our trip to Texan to find our Cowboys; Jason, another friend who gives him money; Roger, my love, another trip to Elkins; Becki, a carr and gas money; Roshawn, all our bathroom trips; Amy, another party at Debbie and Ronnie's; Robin, another prom party; Stephanie, the best frriendship ever, a few inches, another pool stick; Mr. Hall, a new "guinea pig"; Teresa and Patti, a new car and all my love forever; Elissa, another sleigh riding party, Chris; Mom and Dad, all my love.

Lydia Simmons

To: My sister Florence, I leave all the good times; to my friends, I leave friends like my in college; Cynthia and Amy, good luck with your husbands; Richard and Chuckie, I leave you all the days after school; Mr. Hall, I leave my sister in choir class in two years; Kory and Jo, I leave you two happiness; to my Aunt Debby, I leave my insanity; to Randy Wilfong, I wish you good luck in the Marines; to Eddie and Thelda, thanks; to everybody in Mrs. Rose's 6th period gym class, I leave you all my help in there.

Herb Fisher

To: Mike, my ability to build things and my gray car; Sam Taylor, my ability to do carpentry work, Ha Ha; Jimmy, a Ford; Mark, a good Radar Detector; Chris, a very happy and strong relationship with Laticia; Jason McCarty, a truck like mine; Karis, good luck with Bethany; Jason Sharp and Danny Gladwell, the baddest Chevy's ever made; Jamie Wilfong, all the laughs you've given me; Mrs. Taylor, ability to put up with William and Richard; Richard, a shirt; Zig, beaker full of coffee and a comb for bad hair days; Angela, ability to love and put up with me.

April Michelle Nelson

To: Shell, I leave all the purple hair die in the world, address for Zines and Zack de la (whatever), a new car, and the internet; Bethany, I leave the message "no I don't hate you", all the granny shoes you want, and $2.00, whenever needed; Mandy, I leave a happy life with Michael, a job at McDonald's wherever you want, and anything else you want; Sarita, I leave some spare time, you work too hard; Danielle, I leave a real vampire; Wendy, many colores of paint and shoestrings for you bug; and to Rosalie, Elvis.

Andrea Kinnison

To: Sharon, more all nighters, early mornings in the hot tub; Tara, Durbin Days; Robin, a happy life; Sam, more shrimp; David, an extra set of truck keys and K.C.; Jamie Travis, Chris, Johnnie, another trip of K.C. with a lot of air fresher; MKP, friendship, unknown drinks, being "refreshed", the guys bathroom and happiness you deserve; Amy, friendship forever, bug bites, traffic jam, a picnic, and all the love and happiness in the world with Joey, I'll miss you; Becki, friendship and a lot of happiness with Randy; Gary, all my love and life forever, I love you.

Laura Wagner

To: Sharon Tackett, 1-800-HOT-MENN, like what?, so you did, did you not, a "monk", doors of FSC, you're a nut!, driver's license; Katt., 12 ft. Bubble Tape, M-in the hole, corrupted horse, sexy ski instructor; Sarah, a way to "stay free", Great American Food Robbers, another warning ticket; Sharon Morgan, second lunch, copy; Martha, happy researching; Sonia, much happiness; K-tee Keller, a pair of sweatpants; Stephanie, many more lunches without lectures on politics; Jamie, a trip to the Caribbean with me and all my love; Mom and Dad, Love Ya!

Brian Hill

To: Mr. Hall, hope for next year that he will have a drum line half as good as '91-'95 seasons; Jody, another number to call and a discount at the Flower and Card Shop; Brian, smaller ears, and a decent sounding T.D.R.; Jo, handwriting lessons; Joe, a snare; Della, a steal; Laura, one more apology; Debbie and Amy, Drivers Ed., Doug, a freshman; Stephanie, more than 5 1/2 hours, and riding lessons; Andy B., starting point guard position for the Hornets; Andy H., a locker and a bottle of No-Doze; Mandy, one good hair day; Jessie, someone to bug her about mornings.

Frankie Burgess

To: Jimmy, more parties and a temper; Dean, the ability to keep from wrecking me; Aldridge, a party where you don't get sick; Travis W., five dollars; McGreal and Spencer, some hair; Jamie, another date with that certain person; Paul B., another hill climb; Wilfong, the ability to keep from falling over the hill; Johnnie B., some common sense; Jimmy and Dean, another fishing trip out Williams River; and to everyone else, more fun and a good life, C-ya.

Anthony N. Larson

To: Travis, the ability to shoot a basketball; Mike and Mark, I will to you the remendous responsibility of looking out for my little sister Keri, good luck!; Ron, the good fortune of selling your car; Crystal, someone else to punch on; Eric, someone else's hat to steal; Wayne, good luck on cathching fish; Mr. Tupper, the sense to pick a new team.

Jayme Lynn Friel

To: Kelly, my accounting abilities; Debbie, unliked people in accounting class; Ashley, decision making ability; Amy S., more rides around town; Beth, more lunch shifts together; Sharon, English class and the word "things"; Soonia, more nights of sneaking out of my house; Charlene, more Cedar Lakes and telling people off; Robin, living with all the Taylor gang; Mr. Rexrode, the ability not to fall into water troughs; Mr. Beverage, more studentts like me but for only 1/2 year; Mom, my everlasting support and the strength to carry on; Dad, for showing me the light; and Ronnie, my love forever, I love you.

Beth Ann Arbogast

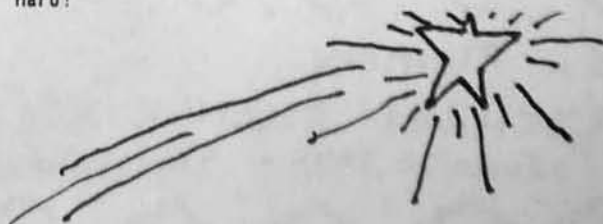

To: Carrie, a bow and arrow; Anita, Old House Run; Lisa, a door knob; Stacy, a pair of boots; Mike, all the love and understanding that I can give; Scott and Davey, my friendship always; Jimbob, Teresa P.; Tina, a bedroom door, Natalie, a big suppy of gum; Miss Poole, a better Ag. class next year; Mrs. Stewart, another giggle box like me; Mrs. Wiley, a slower Drivers Ed. car; Cynthia, a happy marriage to Jeff; Regina, another alley; Michael, a greenhouse; Veronica, my friendship forever; Mom and Dad, many more years of happiness and love.

Chuck Smith

To: Jason, I leave the best of times; Kory, I leave anything except a Subaru; Chris R., I leave protection; Jason and Amy, I leave best wishes; Andrew P., I leave something he can't tear up; Jody A., I leave a 4 X 4; Hardrock, I leave all the dirt he can sweep; Phillip P., I leave a new roll bar; Chris G., I leave a truck with loud pipes; Danny G., I leave Jennifer's phone number; Travis D., I leave suspenders; Matt G., I leave a deer horn; Jake T., I leave a skidder; Josh D., I leave a saw mill; and to everyone else, C-ya.

Andy Beverage

To: Debra, an icy creek and more fun times; Hardrock, Jesse cause she's a good one and a Sir Mix-A-Lot tape; Jason, Wayne and Matt, more scary rides with Wayne, and more runnin' on the road; Kire, a good woman and a fast run to Huntersville; Hicks, tickets for Hornets vs. Bulls; Ike, something for you car; Jay, Sean, Mynuk, and Dave, Fat Elvis's class; Doug, a woman that treats ya good; Warrior Soccer team, we were #1; Aleisha, my heart cause it will always beat for you; everybody else, remember the good times and make more of them, Party Hard!

To: Josh, more tries for your truck; Jason T., some taller boots; Chuck, more women; Jason, build more good trucks; Danny, a shirt with the number three on it; Hard Rock, more times in middle school; Chris, a strap to hold people in the back of your truck; Mike M., a pretty truck; Jody, a 4 X 4; Kenny, some more pipes; Ashley, more dances; Dad and Mom, all my love forever; Laticia, all my love; Randy, money for insurance; Gilligan, more snow under the truck so you can laugh; Pritt, something that won't tear up; John D., a brand new Chevy; Mark B., some bigger snakes.

Kory Sharp

To: Jo, I leave all my Harley stuff, my love, and alot of good times; Bobby and Nathaniel, I leave 3 more years of high school; Chuck, I leave a paint brush and good times; Lonnie, I leave snowballs, and 1 more year with Mr. Burns; Morgan, I leave him the cafeteria to mop; Mom and Dad, I leave my love; Rob and Yvonne, I leave alot of good times; Aaron, I leave a smoke detector.

Beth Warder

To: Dad and Monie, thanks for everything; Mom, all my love; Joe, "Best of luck"; Amy, more trips to Elkins, life supply of peanut butter, a dog, friendship forever; Kelly, life of happiness with Brooksie, life long friendship; Debbie, lots of happiness with Brad, life on a farm, long lasting friendship; Sharon, pineapple chunks, friendship forever; Ashley, #1 personal and gossip columns in Pocahontas Times; Robin, more classes like Vo-Ag; Stephanie, Prom night; Brian, blow-up doll, masking tape; Jason, life with Amy; Doug, "lots of help"; John, Kooter head; Amy, Andi, Mary Kate, more classes like Accounting.

Carrie A, Arbaugh

To: Travis, all my love and happiness; Mom another pain like me and all my love; Ginnie, a car and happiness; Scottie, a truck that will run good; Henry and Betty, peace and happiness; Mrs. Beverage, another student like me; Beth, one night alone with that special someone; Amy and Jennifer, lots of luck; Steven, happiness; David, alot more trips to Circleville iwth Travis; Dad and Linda, all my love; Trampus, a big Johnson's hat; Wilma and Butch, a life supply of money and lots of happiness; Mrs. Wiley, a good class; Randale, lots of happiness and a nice car.

In Memory...

RICHARD ALLEN KINCAID

June 23, 1975 - September 9, 1994

Eric Michael Mynuk

To: Elizabeth, I leave my throne for Queen's rule, eternal love and support, and my college address; Cindy, synthetic hugs to last between visits, unending friendship, and a clear head; Hanna, a food arsenal; Mrs. Burns, my sister to take my place, many more great science bowlers; Mrs. McGee, a promise to return with the culprit that broke into the bank; Andy, Ray, McGreal, Willi, Furr, Oak, Praise, Elvis, and Skinny, see you at Graceland; Rolleston $3.85; the name Homework Boy to whoever wants it; to PCHS, I leave forever.

Longing

My soul longs for freedom,
To be free as an eagle
That soars the sky.
My soul thirsts for my tribal ways,
It longs for the tribal beliefs,
Which are so dear to my heart.
If I can only be free,
Be free to exist,
To be me.
I am Indian in a confusing world,
In a world that won't let me be free.
Oh, how I long for my freedom.

-Renae Kemp

SENIOR BABY PHOTOS

Beth Warden

TEN YEAR PREDICTIONS

Bradley Wayne Miller-Happily married to me, living on a farm and raising our ten little rednecks.-Debbie Beverage

Melissa Dawn Evans-In the only plush velvet bunker after annihilating everyone but Chippendale dancer and best friends.-Sara Peacock

LeAnna Rejoice Alderman-Billionair for her invention of the world's first organic Jello.-Mellissa Evans

Kristy Renae Terry-Coming to PCHS every Monday to change Mrs. Rhea's snails and rabbits.-Laura Wagner

Andrew D. Beverage-Computer major working in N.C. married to Aleisha, living happily ever after.-Jason Robinson

Jonathan Hicks-Still cruisin' around Marlinton in his COOL red car, listening to that Rap music.-Sara Lagace and Sarita Delp

Sara D. Peacock-Working in a bikini bar in Jamaica, drinking pina colodas, getting caught in the rain.-Melissa Evans

Joni Marie Ervine-Grown up to become a famous postal murderer.-Ron Hall

Lydia Simmons-The first military aircraft mechanic to recieve the Medal of Honor.-Joni Ervine

Herbert Clark Fisher-Will be an excellant general contractor.-Mick Gibson

Forrest Glen Heinle-The target of a bomb that he mis-directed.-Joni Ervine

Martha Leigh McComb-Living in Austrailia while practicing her radiology skills on new born Kangaroos.-Becki McCarty

Andrew Paul Alderman-In Denmar Pennetentary for sexual harrasment and trying to remember not to drop the soap.-Sara Lagace

Laura Elizabeth Simmons-Still recovering from a fractured skull received while trying to finally do a successful toss.-Ron Hall

Eric Furr-Manager of an industrialized club that only serves those so called "freaks".-Sara Lagace and Sarita Delp

Jody Alderman-Owns a world wide wood service with the logo "You Call, We Haul"-Alderman's Wood Service.-Curtis Browning

Franklin Lee Burgess-Living in Marlinton, owner of Burgess's Bar and Grill.-Jim Campbell

Charles R. Smith-Will have 12 kids to nine different wives and will still be looking for the right woman.-Jason T. Shinaberry

Natalie Shannon Mickle-Traveling to Pittsurgh, watching Sean play for the Steeler's, whilestill cheering for the 49ERS.-Kristy Terry

Anthony Noble Larson-Champion cometitor in Tae Kwon Do, currently employed as an instructor, "Discipline is the key!"-K. McGee

Robert Jason Robinson-Hardrock will be dead, if not working and dancing his way there. HA!-Andy Beverage

Rachel Paulne Sheets-Living in a yurt, eating bagels, and still trying to comprehend how calculus will help.-Jason Rolleston

Kory Ray Sharp-The Marlboro Man! Living on a ranch riding horses, cows and his custom design Harley -Nancy Jo Mullens

Amy Jo Phillips-Married to Chuck with ten kids running around living in Lewisburg.-Whitney Good

Danielle L. Brown-She and Stone will still be upset that the new M&M's color wasn't purple -Amanda McLaughlin

Sarah E. Wade-Living in Virginia making mega bucks as an account fraud investigator.-Stephanie Mullenax

Robin Renee' Hamilton-Queen of Buffalo Mountain with four diamond rings and three kids happily married to Stephen-Amy Groseclose

Stephanie Lynne Mullenax-Baking and decorating cakes for friends and operating an "old-peopl" boutique.-Linda Stewart

Regina Elizabeth Lambert-Working as a disc jockey at a radio station in Maryland, d.j.ing dances on weekends.-Linda Stewart

Shenda Fave Smith-Cruising in her love bug, eating cheese and bread, searching for her purpose in life.-Ron Hall

Wendy Renae Kirk-Painting murals on preschool nursery walls or managing an art supply store for the visually handicapped-Roselyn Leary

Ruthana Elaine McNeel-Living in Morocco, belly-dancing by day, and searching for th eschmegma cure by night.-Marcy Walker

Thomas Christopher Stewart-Working for Sara Lee, learning how to make a chees cake better than Kroger makes.-Ron Hall

Marcella Ann Walker-Driving around in a schmegma-free van named Ralph, massaging the U.S. Mens Soccer Team.-Tommy Stewart

Travis Shane Dean-Needing money to pay off Frankie, Trivis will moonlight as a gigolo in Marlinton.-David Tupper

Christopher Shawn Rose- Will be working at a construction company, married to Corey with seven kids.-John Duncan

Laura Leigh Wagner-Married, working as a dietician on Carnival Cruise Line.-Sharon Tackett

Jason Todd Shinaberry-Will have five kids with three different women and be owner of the hair club for men.-Charles Smith

Curtis Dale Browning-Living outside of Pocahontas county with no wife, no kids, and no worries.-Jody Alderman

April Michelle Nelson-Will be living the high life as a drummer in a punk band and a mechanic on the side.-Amanda McLaughlin

William Boyd Haden Jr.-Became world's most famous martial arts teacher by playing Nintendo.-Curtis Browning

Jennifer Jade McLaughlin-Working as a CPA in Lewisburg and teaching a night class a PCHS.-Linda Stewart

Beverly Dawn Gragg-Still living in Slatyfork and finally married to Tony McKenney with a houseful of kids-Glenda Teter

Beth Ann Warder-Living in Florida, still waiting for that certain sailor to slide in with the tide anytime.-Amy Smith

Sara Marie Lagace-Will be preparing for her bar exam and celebrating ten years of non-smoking.-Robert Sheets

Glenda Louise Teter-Living in Lobelia with Jay and arguing with him every chance she gets.-Sara Lagace

Amanda Danielle McLaughlin-Will be happily living in Jamaica with Michael while share-cropping.-April Nelson

Christopher Harlen Gibson-Working at Beckwiths, driving a new Chevy, and chasing lot lizards to take fishing.-Kenney Shinaberry

Carrie Ann Arbaugh-Very happily married with children living in Bartow and quite successful in the restaurant business-Linda Beverage